CAN YOU DEDICATE A FULL YEAR (Aug-April) IF YOU BECOME A PVAMU CHEERLEADER?

AS A PROSPECTIVE MEMBER OF THE PRAIRE VIEW CHEERLEADING SQUAD, I UNDERSTAND THAT I MUST ADHERE TO THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS AND CONDITIONS OR RISK THE CHANCE OF BEING TERMINATED FROM THE TRYOUT PROCESS OR REMOVED FROM THE SQUAD.

1. I am a full time student at Prairie View University and have at least a 2.5 GPA, cumulative.

2. I am in good standing with the Prairie View University and not on academic or disciplinary probation.

3. I have no health or physical defects which would hamper my ability to perform as a cheerleader or which might cause cheerleading to be unsafe to my health.

3A. I am covered by adequate health insurance to cover any cost of accident or injury that may occur to me during the try-out clinic, practices, or anytime I may be a member of Prairie View cheerleading program.

3B. I understand any costs not covered by university insurance will be my personal responsibility.

4. I understand and accept that I may be cut at any time during the tryout process for any reason.

4A. I realize the weight and conditioning requirements necessary for the sport of college cheerleading.

I have completed this application packet to the best of my ability. I understand that collegiate cheerleading involves elements of gymnastics and thus involves the risk of personal injury. I am participating in these tryouts with this knowledge and do not hold Prairie View A&M University, the Student Activities Department liable. I also understand that judging will partially be of subjective nature and that the final decision of choosing squad members rests with the cheer coach and advisor.

Note: If you become a Prairie View A&M University Cheerleader, it is a privilege and should not be taken lightly. Being a PVAMU Cheerleader will take hard work and dedication. Be prepared to invest July- April with the cheer program going to cheer camp, National Competition and athletic events such as football, basketball and soccer ect. For such events you may be asked to forfeit holidays for practice such as, Christmas break, Spring break, and or summer break. Quitting throughout the season will cause you to be fined by repaying the Cheer organization back what they have invested in you. Please consider this before you commit yourself by signing the application.
