Announces the 54th Session of the Annual Ministers' Conference at
Prairie View A&M University
Prairie View, Texas
February 7 & 8, 2012

GREETINGS:

Welcome back to an ecumenical movement at Prairie View A&M University. God's faithfulness will allow us to return to the "Hill" to renew collegiate camaraderie, pastoral fellowships, and spiritual nurturing for our souls.

In 2011, our society, churches, congregations and educational institutions have experience serious budget cuts. Society has shown the world that money cannot replace our faith and trust in God; but as preachers and church leaders we must continue to share God's message of hope in difficult economic times.

Our theme for this 54th Session of the Annual Ministers' Conference, "God's Church, God's People, God's Agenda" challenges us to preach God's Word to fulfill God's purpose in our individuals lives today.

It is always my personal honor to express my sincere thanks to those colleagues in ministry who believed in the dream ~ the dream that ignited us to fuel flames of enthusiasm about what's to come in campus ministry. Campus ministry is that tool that makes the difference in the lives of students who have come to receive an education of the first class. Thank God for those ministers who believed in contributing to a great cause which allows students to fulfill their educational goals.

It is my prayer that God will grant you favor to continue to attend and support this great conference and see what is in store for years to come. I look forward to your attendance and participation.

Faithfully yours,

Charles H. Lewter, IV
 Dean of Chapel
