RE: Maintenance for IT Services

The Prairie View A&M University email system will be unavailable Thursday, February 12, 2009 between 12:01 am and 5:00 am due to needed maintenance by the IT department. This maintenance is required to protect against newly found vulnerabilities with MS Exchange (the University email application) servers. No emails should be lost during the downtime.

Full services should be restored by 5:00 am. If you experience trouble with email services after 5:00am, please contact the Help Desk at 936-261-2525 or 877-241-1752. We apologize for any inconvenience and thank you in advance for your support as we continue to work to protect our information resources.
