Re: Health & Financial Fair – “Working Toward a Stress Free and Financially Manageable Holiday”

The festive season is fast approaching but the economy continues to cast a dark cloud over holiday spending. The holidays can be fun; nevertheless they can also be very stressful. All of us need ways to manage stress by planning ahead and spending smarter to ensure that the upcoming holiday season is indeed a joyous occasion.

The Office of Business Affairs is pleased to announce its Health & Financial Fair, held on November 10, 2009, in the Memorial Student Center Ballroom from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The theme for this year’s Fair is “Working Toward a Stress-free and Financially Manageable Holiday”. This Fair will focus on a variety of strategies to assist you in planning ahead for a holiday free of financial pressure. Exhibitors featured at the Fair include Wells Fargo and Wachovia Banks, AIG, MetLife Resources, ING, TIAA-CREF, RS Group, Delta Dental, BlueCross BlueShield of Texas, Scott & White Health Plan, Trinity Wellness Center, AT & T, Alzheimer's Association, American Cancer Association and the American Red Cross.

President Wright and the Office of Business Affairs encourage all faculty, staff and students to attend both the Fair and the information sessions offered throughout the day. Each faculty and staff member will be allowed one hour and thirty minutes to attend the Fair and information sessions of his/her choice. Please ensure that the time you plan to attend the Fair has been cleared by your supervisor. Door prizes will be given away every hour. To assist planning your day, the schedule of information sessions offered is attached. We look forward to seeing you at the Fair!
