The Professional Development and Appraisal System (PDAS), which is the State's approved instrument for appraising its teachers and identifying areas that would benefit from staff development is used to assess our candidates' performance during student teaching. The PDAS was developed under a legislative mandate to establish a fair and practical appraisal process that acknowledges and reinforces good teaching practices and quality professional development. The PDAS includes 51 criteria within eight domains reflecting the Proficiencies for Learner-centered Instruction adopted by the State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC). Domain 1 addresses active, successful student participation in the learning process. The data in table above shows that the candidates averages in all programs are higher than 3.0 on a scale of 4.0, indicate our candidates high level of performance.
