

Professional Vitae
L. Irene Duke
Prairie View A&M University
P.O. Box 519 MS
Prairie View, TX 77446
936.261.3411
936.261.3419

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science Northeast Louisiana University, August 1982
Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Geology
Passed the National Teacher Exam in Education

40 Graduate Hours Northeast Louisiana University, 1986-1990
(Toward Terminal Degree) 400 and 500 level courses in Education Administration & Supervision, Curriculum and Instruction, Education Foundations, Statistics, and Biological and Physical Sciences

Doctor of Education Grambling State University, July 1997
Specialization: Curriculum & Instruction-Reading
Minor: Developmental Education
Cognate: Biological Sciences

TEACHING

Prairie View A&M University
Non-Tenure Track Position

August 1998 Reading Enhancement Coordinator, Developmental Reading Instructor

August 2001 University College

Prairie View A&M University
Tenure Track Position

August 2001 Assistant Professor
To 2008 College of Education

Research and Scholarships

“The Effects of Attribution Retraining by Videotape on Developmental Mathematics Student Performance and Attributions,” Monograph Book for the National Association for Developmental Education, 2002.

School Partnership (Spring 2007 & 2008 Semesters)
Jones Elementary, Mrs. Carol Bates, Principal

Awards

2005-2006 Who's Who Among America's Teachers
2004-2005 Who's Who Among America's Teachers
2003-2004 Who's Who Among America's Teachers
2001 National Association of Developmental Education (NADE) Research Award in Developmental Education, NADE Conference, March 2001, Louisville, KY

Service

University

Faculty Senator, 2006-2007; 2007-2008

College of Education

Admittance to Teacher Education, Secretary, 2007 to Present