

PAMELA T. BARBER-FREEMAN, Ph.D.

P.O. Box 519 ~ M.S. 2524
Prairie View, TX 77446
963.261.3530 (office)
936.261.3617 (fax)
ptfreeman@pvamu.edu

CURRICULUM VITA

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. Higher Education Administration, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK 1993
- Certification, School Counseling, University of Central Oklahoma, Edmond, OK 1986
- MED Education Administration, University of Oklahoma, Norman, OK 1977
- B.S. Elementary Education, Langston University, 1972

EXPERIENCE

- Prairie View A&M University
Associate Professor, 2000 – 2007
Courses: Educational Administration courses
- Prairie View A&M University
Professor/Interim Department Head, 2007-2008
Courses: Education Administration and Educational Leadership (doctoral)
- Mississippi State University
Association Professor, 1993 - 2000
Courses: Curriculum & Instruction and Educational Administration
- Rose State College
Career Counselor, 1985 -1988

PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS AND PUBLICATIONS

- ADVANCE PAID: Successfully Navigating Your Career – Advancing Women Faculty in Engineering & Technology at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), NSF ADVANCE PAID Funding 2009 – 2012 (CO-PI $704,712 funded)
- Inducted to the William H. Parker Leadership Academy Hall of Honor, 2008
- NAE/CASEE Travel Grant to attend the ASEE 2007 Conference in Hawaii ($2785)
- Sloan-C Minority Scholar, 2006
- Barber-Freeman, P. and Crumpton-Young, L. (2008). You've Got the Power: Breaking the Vicious Cycle. Orlando, FL. ISBN 978-0-9792369-5-2
- Barber-Freeman, P. & Adams, L. (2008). You've Got the Power: Turning Your Life A. Orlando, FL. ISBN 978-0-9792369-3-8
- Duncan, B. and Barber-Freeman, P. (2008) Establishing a model for learning communities at an HBCU for Graduate in Classes. Journal of Negro Education, 241-249.
- Freeman, P. Ross, W. & Johnson, W. (2008). The Perceptions of HBCU Faculty Concerning ITVN, Web-Based and Internet Courses. Journal of the Research Association of Minority Professors, 10, 1, 56-70.