

Professional Vitae

Clement E. Glenn, PhD

Prairie View A&M University

P O Box 519 MS

Prairie View, TX 77446

936-261-3646/3551- (Office)

936-857-3905 (Fax) ceglenn@pvamu.edu (E-mail)

Education	BBA – Management – Prairie View A&M University Finance – Prairie View A&M University Educational Administration – Texas A&M University	MBA – PhD –
Teaching	ADMN5003 – Fundamentals of Administration – Spring 2008 School Community Leadership – Spring 2008 Curriculum Leadership – Fall 2007 – Fall 2007	ADMN5133 – ADMN5073 – School SUPV5113 – Principles of Supervision

Research and Scholarships

Dissertation: “Conflicting Perspectives on Educational Goals between School Officials and Non-School Officials in Navasota, Texas”

Author: “Motivation to Educate: A Holistic Learning Guide”

Author: “Success is the Goal: A Program Handbook”

Article Publication in National Forum of Teacher Education Journal: “The Diversity Dilemma in Texas and the Nation: Creating a Holistic Educational Model to Make ‘No Child Left Behind’ a Reality in America”

Article Publication in National Forum of Educational Administration and Supervision Journal: Glenn’s Holistic Thinking Pyramid: A Five (5) Tier Process of Integration”

Article Publication in the International Journal of Scholarly Academic Intellectual Diversity-Electronic: “The Art of Teaching in the 21st Century: Using a Holistic Pedagogy to Meet the Needs of ALL Students Regardless of Race, Color, or Creed”

Service The Brotherhood, Grimes County – 501(c)3 Community Development Corporation that facilitates the following:

Grade 3-12 Mentoring Program in Navasota Independent School District in Navasota, Texas entitled, “Success is the Goal”

4-H Weekend and Summer Program for At-Risk Students

Annual Scholarship Program

Weekly Radio Program entitled, "Success is the Goal"

DRAFT