

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY

A Member of the Texas A&M University System

Dear Former Miss Prairie View A&M University:

Homecoming is the time of the year when Prairie View A&M University, like many institutions around the nation, welcomes its family, alumni, and friends to the campus...HOME. As a part of the 2006 Annual Homecoming activities, the university will host a Miss Prairie View A&M University (Miss PVAMU) Reunion, November 3-4, 2006.

As a symbol of the University, Miss PVAMU has been a beacon to all. She is devoted to and proudly proclaims her undying love for her university. In her royal splendor she exhibits the epitome of a Prairie View woman. In honor of her regal spirit, the 2006 Homecoming Committee has chosen to recognize these indomitable women.

As you may be aware, President Wright has convened an Arts and Culture Committee to help the university capture accomplishments and achievements of our alumni. In support of that initiative and to facilitate an appropriate future exhibit of Miss PVAMU, we are requesting any photographs and memorabilia that might help us demonstrate your impact on the University or any significant event from your time as a student or in your life after college. All photographs will be scanned and returned and arrangements can be made to return memorabilia in an agreed upon manner. For additional information, please contact Dr. Laretta F. Byars at 936-261-2136.

Currently, the committee is reaching out and contacting Miss PVAMU 1932-2005 to create an up-to-date database. Once the personal information is compiled in the Miss PVAMU database, correspondences providing complete information concerning the Miss PVAMU Reunion weekend will be sent out. The Miss PVAMU database will be maintained in the Office of Student Activities & Leadership.

Please complete the Miss PVAMU Profile Sheet and return it to the following address by September 8, 2006:
