Student Organization's Certification of Compliance

Admission to Prairie View A&M University and any of its sponsored programs is open to qualified individuals regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin or educationally related handicaps. All student organizations must be advised that, by law, University recognition/registration will be granted only if the organization is in compliance with the statement above and with Title IX of the Civil Rights Act of 1974, as amended. In order to comply with Title IX, the organization must provide equal opportunity for full participation by all individuals and must not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, color, creed, physical handicap, religion or national origin in any area of activity of membership in the organization. In the case of sports club, separate teams (men/women) where necessary may be organized as long as equal opportunity exists for either sex to form a team. Fraternities, sororities, honorary and professional organizations whose national organizations are exempt from Title IX must furnish proof by letter from the National Office.

Prairie View A&M University cannot be held responsible for accidents and/or injuries incurred through activities sponsored by recognized student organizations on or off campus.
