Make Time for Research @ The Library

Drop in and stop by the John B. Coleman Library, Room 108 every Thursday at 4 pm. There will be a live librarian to help on common topics you may encounter in doing your research here at the university, including (but certainly not limited to) how to find a book in the online catalog, how to find an article in the database and website evaluation.

No appointment is needed; classes are welcome as are interested individuals.
