Dr. Lin reported that the task force would be ready to present at the next UAC meeting on Thursday, May 02, 2013.

Task Force 5 Update – Procedures and Template for Degree Program Request Form, Dr. Emmanuel Opara, chair

Dr. Emmanuel Opara presented the UAC members a flow chart of the Process for a New Degree Program. Dr. Opara presented a check list for developing a New Degree Program. The UAC members review and commented on the task forces flow chart and check list.

Dr. Nave has asked that all UAC members please review and you should be ready to vote at the next UAC meeting on Thursday, May 02, 2013.

Dr. Nave opened a discussion up regarding program review. PVAMU does not have a table implemented as to when a courses need to be reviewed. The Provost’s office is currently doing a program review. Programs that are being review are those that have been lost and low producing programs.

II. New Business
The topic of should a non tenured faculty person be able to vote at the college level committees on matters that effect a tenured faculty person had been brought up prior to Dr. Thomas-Smith arrival and Dr. Nave wanted to get her input on the topic.

Dr. Thomas-Smith stated that from a SACS standpoint you are responsible for the whole program. Everyone is accountable for the student learning outcomes. Whoever is responsible to deliver content they should be held accountable and should be allowed to have input.

Dr. Nave opened a discussion up regarding redefining a credit hour.

III. Old Business

Dr. Nave asked the members of the UAC that were present to please review the Core Curriculum Committees proposed recommendation from the last UAC meeting on April 11, 2013. The table was opened for discussion. The recommendations that the UAC members did agree with were #’s 1,5,6,7&8, and 9. Dr. Nave stated that she would take this information back to the Core Curriculum Committee.

IV. Adjournment

There being no further business, the chair adjourned the meeting at 5:54 p.m.
