Dear Colleagues across the globe, wherever you are, greetings,

It is with great pleasure and pride that I inform you of the availability of Applications and Applied Mathematics: An International Journal (AAM)'s Special Issue No. 3, Proceedings of

The International Conference on Mathematics:
An Istanbul Meeting for World Mathematicians
3-5 July 2018,   Istanbul, Turkey

at the beginning of its 14th year of its existence. This special issue, with attached Table of Contents, contains 5 papers contained in 73 pages of peer-reviewed and quality papers (as are the standards of AAM) in all mathematical sciences according to the conference's acceptable topics. This special Issue, as other special and regular issues, can be viewed at http://www.pvamu.edu/aam. The next special issue (Issue No. 4) will appear in March of 2019. Then, the next regular issue will be available in June 2019.

To strengthening the credibility of AAM and to prevent plagiarism, AAM is using the Turnitin software as part of its review process. Copying any paper with its proper citation is allowed for any non-commercial publication. Commercial publication of any part of AAM requires written permission for the Editor-in-Chief. Please be informed that, currently, publication in and access to AAM is free of charge. Also, the contents from AAM publications are included in and/or indexed by (in alphabetical order):
