DECEMBER NEWSLETTER | VOL. 4

Green Gratitude

Greetings Panthers 😊

Almost there! As we wrap another successful semester, we've not only achieved academic excellence but also have contributed to the growth of a more sustainable campus, and we're not stopping there.

Our planet deserves a round of applause, and it's up to us to keep it healthy and happy. Look at us go! We wish you a joyful holiday season and look forward to welcoming you back in the vibrant spirit of the spring semester.

Awareness Days

Announcements

✓ Cue the applause for the unstoppable December 9th grads! May your future be brighter than a thousand suns!

□ World Soil Day (Dec 5th)
Get grounded and celebrate World Soil Day by learning about composting, supporting local farmers, and appreciating the importance of healthy soil in our ecosystem.

□ International Volunteer Day (Dec 5th)
'Tis the season of giving! Volunteer for environmental causes and spread awareness by contributing to making our community greener.

□ Christmas (Dec 25th)
Infuse your celebrations with sustainability! Decorate with recycled materials and use energy-efficient lights.

□ Kwanzaa (Dec 26th-Jan 1st)
Spread the joy of community and culture this season! Every day of this special occasion is dedicated to a different principle, with loads of reflection and celebration.

□ New Year's Eve (Dec 31st)
As we bid farewell to 2023, let's gear up for the next year with fresh energy and love for our planet. Make green resolutions and kick off 2024 with a bang of eco-consciousness!

✓ Finals are here, but don't sweat it! With a positive mindset, you can excel. Consider utilizing digital tools to enhance your studying experience. Conquer those exams!

✓ December isn't just about unwrapping gifts, it's also about unwrapping our love for the environment! Plant more and join clean-up drives.

✓ The holiday season is the time to make a difference, so spend some time giving back to your local community. Volunteer at organizations such as your local library, food bank, nursing homes, animal shelters, soup kitchen, etc.

□ Sustainability Tips

Show our beautiful planet some love by making little sacrifices that go a long way!

★ Gifts Wrapped in Green: Choose eco-friendly wrapping options for your presents. Recycled paper, reusable fabric, or even newspaper can add a touch of sustainability to your gift-giving.

★ Layer Up, Stay Green: Embrace the chill by layering clothes instead of cranking up the heat. It's a cozy and energy-efficient!

★ Winter Break Practices: Before heading off for the break, conserve energy by ensuring all devices are unplugged.

★ Spread Warmth & Kindness: Consider donating warm clothing or blankets to local shelters.
