Call-In Information: Registration Is Required To Receive This Information

Heirs' property is a widespread issue that results in blight and generational poverty, and does so disproportionately in the African-American community. The Reckoning Program is a quarterly heirs education program designed to educate landowners and assist them with a general understanding to navigate matters related to their heirs' property.

- Understanding Heirship
- What is Title?
- Methods to Establish Clear Title
- Land Boundaries
- Clearing Title Defects in the Courts
- Tax Foreclosure – The Number One Way People Lose Their Land!
- Land Management

The SFLR Program aids African American landowners in creating sustainable intergenerational forest ownerships. The assistance is provided through eight, trusted local community-based organizations in eight southeastern states (AL, AR, GA, MS, NC, TX, & VA) and five national partners-The JPB Foundation, U.S. Endowment for Forestry and Forest Communities, the USDA Forest Service, the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS), and American Forest Foundation.

The Cooperative Agriculture Research Center does not discriminate against anyone regardless of their race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity. Persons who require communication in a language other than English, or who require alternate means of communication of program information (braille, large print, audio tape, etc.), or who has a disability should contact Mr. Belinda Lewis at 936-261-3585 in advance.
