

Urban Agriculture Program Wildlife Conservation

Virtual • Zoom

Are you positively piqued by pollinators, or tantalized by trees? Do you seek to enhance beneficial wildlife in your own backyard? Then join us for the Wildlife Conservation Program! We will discuss native plants and prairies, forestry and even beneficial insects, such as pollinators and predators, along with strategies used to bolster their populations. There will also be a guest speaker from the Native Plants Society of Texas. Details Below!
