

The Texas Distance Learning Association (TXDLA) has recognized Dr. John R. Williams, Chemistry Professor and Director of Distance Learning, in their Member Spotlight.

The TXDLA Member Spotlight is published periodically by the TXDLA to acknowledge members who have implemented and/or manage innovative programs.
