Prairie View A&M is proud to present the first winners of the inaugural Black History Month juried art competition and exhibition: A Mosaic of Artistic Expression. Student artists were encouraged to submit art works in conjunction with the National Black History Month theme, Hallowed Grounds Sites of African American Memory or Prairie View’s theme, Black History A Mosaic of Artistic Expression. Students submitted work online, and the works were juried by Houston based artist, Delita Martin. Art Mediums accepted were: painting, drawing, printmaking, mixed media, photography, and video. Over 90 works were selected and 50 works were selected for the exhibition. First place, with a cash monetary prize of $2500, was awarded to junior Architect major Clifford Robinson, III. Second place was awarded to sophomore Digital Media Art major Jawon Thomas, with a cash prize of $2000. Third place was awarded to sophomore Digital Media Art Major Samiria Percival, with a cash award of $1000. Honorable mention was awarded to sophomore Architect major Miles Carney with a cash award of $500. Three students were awarded the President’s Choice Award with a cash prize of $500. Senior business major Chase Anderson, Junior Agriculture major Caleb Riggins, and senior Computer Science major Corinna Vega. Their work was personally selected by Dr. George Wright and will now be a part of Prairie View’s permanent art collection. The Mosaic of Artistic Expression student art exhibition with run throughout the Spring 2016 semester, and is located in the John B. Coleman library first floor Art Gallery. This event is sponsored by the Houston Live Stock Show and Rodeo, and is a part of the President’s Lecture and Culture series.
SELF 2
Clifford Robison, III
First Place Award
Mixed Media, Site Varied
Senior: Architecture
Hometown: Houston, Texas

FIRST PLACE
SELF 2
CLIFFORD ROBISON
MIXED MEDIA: ASSEMBLAGE, TRANSFERPRINTS
JUROR SELECTIONS

TOP LEFT:  SECOND PLACE
JAWON THOMAS
“YOU GOT JOKES”
WOODCUT

TOP RIGHT:  THIRD PLACE
SAMARIA PERCIVAL
“FIRST COME FIRST SERVE”
DIGITAL MEDIA

BOTTOM LEFT:  HONORABLE MENTION
MILES CARNEY
“BLACK BEAUTY”
DIGITAL MEDIA
TOP LEFT: CALEB RIGGINS “ME” COLOR PASTEL

TOP RIGHT: CHASE ANDERSON “THE MAN” CHARCOAL

BOTTOM LEFT: CORINNA VEGA “HOPE FOR RUBY” ACRYLIC

PRESIDENT’S CHOICE WINNERS