

Walter Zamir Rideaux III

8750 Point Park Drive, Apt 1801 • Houston, Texas, 77095 • (972) 523-3986 • wrideaux@gmail.com

Targeting Entry-Level Position

- Chemistry graduate student offering a strong academic background while seeking further experience.
- Consistently recognized for determination, improvement, and problem solving skills.
- The ability to evaluate myself, my peers, and the department as a whole.
- Quick to learn and master new challenges; successful in both team and self-directed objectives; and proficient in a range of scientific disciplines, technological tools, medical terms, and laboratory techniques.

EDUCATION

Prairie View A&M University – Prairie View, TX
Masters of Science in Chemistry

Degree Expected – August 2017

University of Texas – Austin, TX
Bachelor of Arts in French; Minor in Biology

Degree Acquired - August 2013

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Graduate Research Assistant
Prairie View A&M University
(Prairie View, TX)
(936) 261-3106

2015 – Present

- Displayed firm grasp of chemical concepts across numerous disciplines
- Established personal research based on the amination and acetylation of Organoarsenic compounds.
- Trained in the operation and analysis of Gel Electrophoresis, Infrared Spectroscopy, Hydrogen and Carbon NMR, Thin Layer Chromatography, Titration, and general chemistry techniques.
- Experience with Computational Analysis via the Gaussian 09 and GaussView 5 programs.
- Effectively led undergraduate laboratory courses in the areas of Inorganic Chemistry, Organic Chemistry, and Biochemistry.
- Provided grading and tutoring services in the capacities of Biochemistry and Inorganic Chemistry.

Medical Scribe
Lisa Barnes, PA (Grand Prairie,
Arlington, Fort Worth, TX)
(954) 551-7524

2014 – 2015

- Successfully converted paper based progress notes to an electronic based system
- Obtained a vast knowledge of medical terms, practices, and procedures.
- Systematized information for five different nursing homes in the DFW area on a weekly basis.
- Improved the turnaround time for medical progress notes by one week.
- Recorded the patient's history and chief complaints.
- Transcribed physical exams simultaneously.

- Interpreted and recorded diagnostic test and lab results.
- Prepared schedules, plans, and progress notes for follow-up care.

Administrative Assistant
Metroplex Nursing and Rehabilitation (Grand Prairie, TX)

2009 – 2015

658 SW 3rd St.
Grand Prairie, TX 75051
(972) 264-2464

- Organized and led activities involving the residents on a daily bases as well as helped to structure seasonal events and parties.
- Successfully utilized the AS 400 program to log and update payroll.
- Collected monthly payment from residents, resident families, and Hospice companies.
- Performed administrative function including receiving calls and filing paperwork.
- Increased the efficiency of organizing vast amounts of information by way of filing and transferring paperwork into electronic data.
- Communicated effectively with co-workers and patients to create a productive, yet comfortable, environment.

Shadowing/Mentorship
Dr. Ronnie E. Calhoun, MD
(Duncanville, TX)

2008 - 2013

1010 E. Wheatland Rd, Ste. B
Duncanville, TX 75116
(972) 283-4100

- Observed general cardiovascular surgery techniques and practices.
- Gained knowledge of the surgical tools and mechanisms from communicating with those performing the surgeries.

ORGANIZATIONS

Emmett J. Conrad Scholarship Program
(Dallas, TX)

2008 - Present

- Received a scholarship that was applied to the University of Texas in 2008.
- Performed a mentoring role to future high school graduates.
- Publicly spoke about the importance of mentorship at meetings.

African-American Homecoming Planning Committee
University of Texas
(Austin, TX)

2011 - 2013

- Aided in planning the first African-American Homecoming at the University of Texas.
- Worked in a committee with a set goal, yet also participated in self-directed research.

- Participated in fundraisers that were held on the campus of the University of Texas.
- Successfully negotiated the co-operation of other organizations, speakers, and performers.

Multicultural Students in Natural Sciences
University of Texas
(Austin, TX)

2010 - 2013

- A diverse group of students who share a common goal of academic success.
- Educated and promoted the importance of academics and leadership to peers.
- Focused on giving back to the community through fundraisers and volunteer work.

Black Health Professions Organization
University of Texas
(Austin, TX)

2012 - 2013

- Provided an atmosphere conducive to aiding minority undergraduates matriculate in a professional, health-related school.
- Visited various health science centers.
- Invited minority health professionals as speakers at meetings.

Intramural Football and Soccer
University of Texas
(Austin, TX)

2008 - 2013

- Promoted the importance of co-operation and teamwork to achieve success.
 - Built effective communication skills with peers as well as our competition.
 - Effective use of on-the-fly problem solving skills.
-