

HLTH 2023 Communicable and Noncommunicable Disease Research Essay

Select a specific disease and relate it to societal impact.

Element	Levels of Performance
1. Essay has a clear introduction, general impact and summary components.	__Target(16-20) Essay meets or exceeds word requirement and has at least three major identifiable components. Clear transition from one component to another is presented.	__Acceptable(11-15) Essay meets word requirement and has at least two major identifiable components. Components may run together and transition is not clear.	__Unacceptable(0-10) Essay does not meet word requirement and does not have clearly identifiable components.
	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>
2. Essay demonstrates research performed.	__Target(31-50) Topic is identified, historical information is presented, status of the disease in current society is presented and the impact of the disease on society and human behavior is stated. The information is in-depth and significant. Sources are quoted in the paper.	__Acceptable(16-30) General information is presented about the disease topic selected. The information covers some data not commonly known. Some societal problems are identified. Sources are occasionally quoted in the paper.	__Unacceptable(0-15) General information only is provided. No sources are identified.
	<hr/>

	<hr/> <hr/>
3. Creativity and potential actions.	__ Target(21-30)  Candidate identifies at three or more potential actions or outcomes related to the research disease topic.	__ Acceptable(11-20)  Candidate identifies two potential actions or outcomes related to the research disease topic.	__ Unacceptable(0-10)  Candidate identifies one or no potential actions or outcomes related to the research disease topic.
	<hr/> <hr/> <hr/>		