Mr. Ravindran N. Iyengar

Education

- MS, Computer Science, Jackson State University, 1987

- BS, Electrical Engineering, University of Madras 1983

Academic experience
- Prairie View A&M University - (2000-Present)
    - Lecturer II and Undergraduate Program Coordinator
    - Curriculum coordinator
    - ABET and SAACS coordinator
- Prairie View A&M University (1988-2000)
    - Fulltime instructor teaching a variety of computer Science Courses including Programming Languages, Database, Computer Network, Digital Logic, Computer Architecture, Software Engineering.
    - System and Network Administrator.
      Systems: UNIX/LINUX, Windows 2003 server, Windows 7, Vista, Windows XP.

Non-academic experience
- None

Certifications or professional registrations

- Completed Oracle SQL courses in HCC in Fall 2004
- NOVELL certification

Current membership in professional organizations

- ACM

Honors and awards
- TAMUS Teaching Excellence Award – Fall 2012.
- Most Outstanding Professor of Engineering Department – Epsilon Gamma Iota, Inc - Spring 2012.
- Outstanding Service Award – Roy. G. Perry College Of Engineering – 2011.
- Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company – Excellence In Engineering -2005.
- Recipient of the NISOD Excellence award in Austin.

Service activities (within and outside of the institution)
- Freshman advisor for all students majoring in Computer Science.
- Conduct and evaluate IAC, Classroom, Alumni and Lab. surveys for continuous improvement.
- College Curriculum Committee member since 2004.
- College ABET Committee member since 1998.

Most important publication and presentations from the past five years
- None

Most recent professional development activities

- None