

Pride,
History,
TRADITION.

Prairie View A&M University Athletics, founded in 1907, is the only remaining charter member of the Southwestern Athletic Conference. Sponsoring 18 men and women sports, the department has a long standing history of culture, academic success, and athletic development.

A member of the Southwestern Athletic Conference's western division, PVAMU Athletics is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life of its students by providing competitive activities that will enable young men and women to become productive, contributing members of society.

The Prairie View A&M Foundation is dedicated to the support of Prairie View A&M University through scholarships, fellowships, endowments, unrestricted gifts and capital projects that advance the institutions fulfillment of its mission.

The Foundation is assisting the University in raising funds to build a sports complex representative of the history and legacy that is Prairie View A&M University. Alumni, family and friends of the University with the greater community are invited to support these efforts.
