THE OPENING TIP

Prairie View A&M begins its final homestand of the 2009-10 season as they host Alabama A&M tonight in the William Nicks Building. This weekend's final two home games are extra important for the Panthers as a high seed in the SWAC Tournament is at stake. Currently, Prairie View A&M is tied for third in the SWAC standings and sits two games out of second place and four from first.

ABOUT THE PANTHERS

Picked to finish second in the 2009-10 SWAC standings, the Prairie View A&M Panthers finally turned the corner last season and is now in position to become an annual contender in the Southwestern Athletic Conference race from this point forward.

Since capturing the 2002-03 SWAC Regular Season Championship, times were tough prior to last season with only one conference postseason tournament appearance (2004-05) and a high turnover rate among head coaches and players. However, things have changed under the direction of fourth-year head coach Byron Rimm II.

Rimm, the longest tenured head coach at Prairie View A&M since Elwood Plummer, has brought stability, talent and discipline to the Panther basketball program since assuming the position prior to the 2006-07 campaign. As a result, the Panthers finally got over the hump last season and made a big splash as they finished with their best record and finish since 2002-03 and returned to the postseason for the first time since the 2004-05 campaign.

Darnell Hugee, the team's top inside player, will be counted on to provide the Panthers with leadership and a solid post presence in the paint for the upcoming season. In his first season as a Panther, the 6-7, 205-pound senior from Brooklyn, New York earned SWAC Newcomer of the Year Honors after averaging 12 points and 7.3 rebounds. He also posted nine double-doubles last season and scored a season-high 25 points against Grambling State along with a pair of 16-rebound games.

Rimm says Hugee won't have to carry the load this season in the frontcourt as he added several players who should complement him.

"We're going to be a little smaller in the post this year and not as thick but we'll be a lot more athletic," said Rimm.

"Darnell won't be the only player who can jump above the rim and dunk on anyone as Torrance Garrison returns along with newcomer Brandon Webb and redshirt Michael Webb."

In addition to the quartet in the paint, Rimm feels his newcomers at the wing position will also take the load off the front-court players.

At the guard position, the Panthers are in good hands with the return of starters Chris Jones, Tim Meadows and Michael Griffin. In his first season at Prairie View, Jones provided the Panthers with a steady hand at the guard spot as he averaged 9.1 points and ranked second in the SWAC with 4.6 assists. Griffin ranked third on the team in scoring as a freshman with 9.6 points while Meadows also chipped in nine points per game in his true freshman campaign.

Depth won't be an issue also for the Panthers as they also return forward Dorian McDaniel and guard Alex Richman. McDaniel averaged 7.7 points last year and shot 41 percent from the field as a junior. As a true freshman, Richman served as the team's long-range specialist and nailed 32 three-pointers.

THE LAST OUTING

Game 25
Prairie View A&M 69
Mississippi Valley State 68
Feb. 22, 2010
Itta Bena, Miss.

Senior point guard Christopher Jones drove the length of the court and converted a game-winning layup with 1.5 seconds left to lead Prairie View A&M to a big 69-68 victory on Monday night at the Harrison Complex. The win marked the first time since the late 1980s that Prairie View A&M has won on the campus of Mississippi Valley State.

With the game billed as senior night in the Harrison Complex, it was a junior who put MVSU on top early as Darian Donald nailed 10 straight points for an early 10-4 lead. Prairie View's early woes continued as the Delta Devils took advantage of their homecourt and nailed five treys in the first 10 minutes to claim a 20-12 advantage.

Prairie View overcame its early woes and stormed back with a 7-0 run to cut its deficit to 20-19 at the 8:58 mark of the first half. From that point, the contest went back-and-forth until sophomore Alex Richman nailed a deep trey to give the Panthers their first lead (28-27) of the half with 1:03 remaining. The lead was brief however as both teams traded baskets en route to a 32-all halftime tie.

Mississippi Valley State took an early four-point lead to open the second half and led until Tim Meadows tied the game at 40-all with a trey. The Delta Devils countered with a trey of its own to regain the lead but Dorian McDaniel answered with a big three-pointer to tie the game for the fourth time in the half. Both teams traded leads once again but MVSU finally jumped ahead for an extended period after putting together an 8-2 run to lead 54-48 at the nine-minute mark.

The Panthers fought back with a vengeance as McDaniel keyed a 7-0 run with four of the team's seven points to regain a 55-54 lead with 6:48 left. Mississippi Valley moved back on top briefly but once again, PV continued to fight as baskets by McDaniel and Jones put the team ahead by two (59-57) at the 3:48 mark.

With 2:37 remaining, Shannon Behling put the Delta Devils back in the lead with a wide-open three pointer. Both teams traded missed baskets on its ensuing possessions until junior Brandon Webb's huge go-ahead basket in the paint with 1:29 left. The opportunity for a three-point play by Webb fell short after a missed free throw which led to a quick basket by the Delta Devils for a 62-61 lead.

Down by one on the ensuing possession, Jones took control of the floor as the senior from Katy, Texas nailed a three-pointer in the corner for a 64-62 Prairie View lead at the 1:06 mark. With 30 seconds left on the clock, Mississippi Valley's Kevin Burwell woke the quiet Delta Devil crowd up after draining a long three-pointer for a 65-64 margin. The joy was short-lived though as Panther sophomore Michael Griffin responded with a huge three-pointer to move PV ahead 67-65 with 16 ticks left.

However, Burwell refused to go away as the guard converted a three-point play to move MVSU back ahead by one at 68-67 with seven seconds left. Prairie View A&M head coach Byron Rimm II elected to not call a timeout after the basket and put the ball in the hands of Jones with seven ticks left. After weaving through several defenders, Jones drove straight to the lane and converted the eventual game-winning basket. MVSU had one shot to score but saw its desperation pass fall short as PV managed to split the trip.

McDaniel had a monster game with 22 points and seven rebounds while Griffin scored 11 points. Jones scored nine points with six assists while Brandon Webb scored nine and pulled down five rebounds.

SCOUTING
ALABAMA A&M

Led by veteran head coach L. Vann Pettaway, AAMU went 3-5 in non-conference action and lost three of its first four games to open SWAC play.

The Bulldogs regrouped after the slow start and crept back into the thick of the SWAC race with three straight wins but fell behind once again as they dropped two straight to Texas Southern and Arkansas-Pine Bluff. However, AAMU has bounced back with wins in three of its past four games.

WHEN THEY LAST MET

Alabama A&M 59
Prairie View A&M 54
Jan. 30, 2010
Huntsville, Ala.

Despite an inspired defensive effort that saw them hold Alabama A&M without a second half field goal over the final eight minutes, the Prairie View A&M Panthers came up short 59-54 on Saturday evening in T.M. Elmore Gymnasium.

Both teams raced out to torrid start as they traded baskets early in the first half. Down 18-14 with 12:15 remaining in the half, Prairie View went cold offensively and Alabama A&M sizzled as they outscored the Panthers 19-7 over a 10-minute span to claim a 37-20 lead with 2:51 remaining in the half. Down by 17 and the half winding down, the Panthers finally began to show signs of offensive life as Darnell Hugee, Christopher Jones and Michael Griffin helped spark a 7-2 surge to draw within 39-27 at the halftime break.

The back-and-forth pace continued as the second half began with the Panthers recording an 8-0 run to get back into single digits as they trailed 42-35 after two free throws by Duwan Kornegay. A layup by Dorian McDaniel drew the Panthers to within six at 12:45 but after a series of turnovers and fouls, AAMU managed to up its margin back to 12 at 52-40 with 11:01 left.

Prairie View A&M continued to fight its way back as an offensive putback by Kornegay drew the Panthers to within 56-50 at the 5:39 mark. Two free throws by Hugee cut AAMU's margin to 56-52 with 4:56 left but the lid remained on the basket down the stretch as Prairie View missed five consecutive baskets.

With 40 seconds left, senior Tarrence Garrison blocked a huge shot which put the ball in the hands of Jones. Jones pushed the ball up the court and found a streaking Kornegay for a two-handed dunk to cut the margin to 56-54 with 35 seconds left. On the following possession, Kornegay was whistled for a foul and AAMU's Evan Hilton converted two free throws to give AAMU a 58-54 advantage. Jones missed a jumper on the ensuing possession and Hilton once again converted from the free throw line to kill any hope of a Panther comeback.

THE LAST TIME

Alabama A&M has dominated the Panthers since the series began in 1999 with an 18-6 overall record.

Both teams split the season series in 1999 but AAMU took control from that point and reeled off seven straight wins before PV swept them in 2003.

After splitting the series in 2004, AAMU won four straight before head coach Byron Rimm II captured a win in 2007. The Bulldogs won both in 2008 but split in 2009 with the Panthers.

RIMM vs. AAMU

Saturday's game marks the eighth time head coach Byron Rimm II will face Alabama A&M.

As the head coach at PV, Rimm has faced AAMU seven times and compiled a 2-5 mark with one win each in 2007 and 2009.

HAPPY TO BE HOME

Prairie View is happy to be at home as they're 10-2 this season at the William Nicks Building.

At home, Prairie View averages 72.7 points a game, shoots 43 percent, connects on 62 percent of its free throws, outrebounds teams by 5.9 boards per game and averages 14.7 turnovers.

Individually, Darnell Hugee loves home as he averages 18.7 points, 8.2 rebounds and 2.5 blocks. Michael Griffin averages 10.2 points at home and two steals.

STARTING TO EMERGE

A pair of players with the last name Webb may ultimately hold the key to Prairie View's postseason success.

Redshirt freshman Mike Webb is beginning to emerge as an inside force and key contributor off the bench with back-to-back SWAC Newcomer of the Week honors in the month of December.

In Prairie View's two games on Dec. 20 and Dec. 28, the Dallas, Texas native averaged 11.5 points and 7.5 rebounds including a 76 percent field goal percentage.

For the year, Webb is averaging 3.1 points and 2.3 rebounds in a reserve role.

Against Grambling on Feb. 15, junior forward Brandon Webb had a breakout game with 15 points, four rebounds and two blocks. Since the GSU game, the Terrell, Texas native has averaged 9.7 points and 4.3 rebounds.

Prior to the Grambling State contest on Feb. 15, Webb averaged 0.9 points and 1.1 rebounds.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Prairie View was recently picked to finish second in the SWAC Preseason Basketball poll after last year's third place finish. The selection marks the highest preseason pick since 2003-04 when the Panthers were picked to win it all.

From 2005 to 2008, the Panthers were picked no higher than eighth.

ALL ABOUT HUGEE

Senior forward Darnell Hugee will be a big part of Prairie View's plans this season as the Brooklyn N.Y. native was named the SWAC's Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

So far, he hasn't disappointed with averages of 15.8 points per game, six rebounds and nearly two blocks.

Last season, Hugee averaged 12 points, was second in the league in rebounding (7.3 rpg), fifth in field goal percentage (47.2), and tied for second in total blocked shots last season (42). Hugee posted four 20-point games, was second in the league with nine double-double games and led the SWAC with 12, 10-plus rebounds games.

BLOCK PARTY

Senior Darnell Hugee has been on a blocking spree recently with a combined 17 blocks over the past six games.

Hugee blocked six shots against Mississippi Valley State on Jan. 25 and set another career-high on Saturday, Jan. 30 with eight blocks at Alabama A&M. His previous high before his current spree was five blocks against Ecclesia College on Dec. 11.

Prior to this season, Hugee's career high was four blocks on three occasions.

RAISING HIS GAME

Since inserted into the starting lineup nine games ago, junior Duwan Kornegay has emerged as a scoring threat with an average of 8.6 points and 3.6 rebounds over the past nine games.

Before the lineup change, Kornegay logged averages of 6.9 points and 2.7 rebounds per game.

SWITCHING GEARS

The non-conference slate hasn't been kind to Prairie View A&M head coach Byron Rimm II since he took over the reigns at Prairie View in 2006.

In three years, Rimm is 13-35 in non-conference match-ups with his only NCAA Division I wins coming against Norfolk State and Florida Gulf Coast (both at home).

In SWAC play, Rimm holds a career mark of 33-35.

STEADY HAND

Senior point guard Chris Jones has been a solid presence since transferring into Prairie View from Panola JC prior to the 2008-09 season.

A preseason All-SWAC Second Team selection, Jones dished out 12 assists in the team's season opener on Nov. 14. Against Cincinnati on Nov. 16, Jones came close to a triple double with nine boards, 10 points and seven assists.

For the year, Jones is averaging 5.2 assists, 4.5 rebounds and 7.8 points. He missed six games during non-conference play due to a foot injury.

THE STATS DON'T LIE

Opposing teams will have to work for their points as the trio of Chris Jones, Tim Meadows and Mike Griffin return once again.

The Panthers are averaging 8.2 steals per game led by Jones' 2.7.

SCHEDULING SUCCESS

Similar to last year, head coach Byron Rimm and staff scheduled wisely as they have a solid mix of NCAA Tournament participants from 2009, tourney contenders and teams from the NAIA ranks.

Last year's scheduling format was a success as the Panthers began SWAC play with a five-game winning streak that propelled them into the thick of the SWAC Championship race.

METROPLEX SUCCESS

The Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas area, commonly known as the Metroplex, has become a fruitful area for the Prairie View A&M basketball team.

Of the 15 players listed on the roster, seven hail from the DFW area. The state of California ranks second with three players on the roster.

PANTHERS ON THE TUBE

Prairie View A&M has had two national TV appearance on the ESPN family of networks this season. On Jan. 16, the Panthers battled Jackson State on ESPN2 and played defending SWAC champion Alabama State on ESPNU on Feb. 1.

UP NEXT

Prairie View closes out its homestand on Monday night against Alabama State at 7:30 p.m.

PRAIRIE VIEW BY THE NUMBERS

9 - Prairie View has nine players from the state of Texas with seven from the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Darnell Hugee also posted nine double-doubles in 2009-10.

5 - Five states are represented on the 2009-10 roster.

12 - Senior Darnell Hugee averaged 12 points last season for the Panthers and had 12 games with 10 or more rebounds.

17 - Prairie View's 17 wins last year marked the most wins since the 2002-03 campaign.

2 - Prairie View has had only two postseason appearances in the SWAC Tournament since the 2004-05 season. An appearance this season would mark the first back-to-back appearance since 2002-2003.

Prairie View A&M 91
Schreiner College 47
Sat., Nov. 14, 2009
Prairie View, Texas

Darnell Hugee scored 19 points on Saturday night as Prairie View A&M cruised past Schreiner 91-47 in the season opener for both teams.

Michael Griffin had 15 points and went three-for-six from 3-point range for the Panthers, and Grady Green had another 13 points. Christopher Jones racked up 12 assists with five points.

The Mountaineers' Ralph Turner had 16 points and Colton Kemp helped out with 8 assists.

Game 2

Cincinnati 69
Prairie View A&M 62
Mon., Nov. 16, 2009
Cincinnati, Ohio

The Prairie View A&M men's basketball team put together a valiant fight but fell short of the upset as the University of Cincinnati rallied in the second half to claim a 69-62 win at Fifth Third Arena on Monday evening.

The Panthers (1-1) stormed out of the gates as they led 15-3 with 15:39 remaining in the first half. Cincinnati closed to within six points three minutes later but the Panthers once again kept their foot on the gas pedal as a trey by junior Duwan Kornegay gave Prairie View a 33-18 lead at the 5:11 mark. Once again, the Bearcats fought back and trimmed its deficit to six as the stanza came to a close but Kornegay nailed a jumper with three seconds left in the half to send the Panthers into the locker room with a 38-30 halftime advantage.

Prairie View moved ahead by double digits (46-36) once again after Christopher Jones' lay-up with 16:37 left in the second half. However, the roles reversed from that point as Cincinnati went on a 21-2 run over the next 10 minutes to move on top 57-48. The Bearcats continued to lead by nine up until 50 seconds remaining when Jones cut Prairie View's deficit to 66-59 following a lay-up. UC's Rashad Bishop made 1-of-2 free throws for an eight-point margin but Prairie View continued to fight as Kornegay drained a three-pointer with 33 seconds left to bring the score to 67-62.

Cincinnati's Lance Stephenson missed two free throws with 32 seconds left and gave Prairie View a shot at making it a one possession game. Unfortunately, Tarrence Garrison's jumper fell short with 16 ticks left and Stephenson connected on two free throws following the miss to secure the win for the Bearcats.

Five players scored in double digits for the Panthers led by Hugee's 16 points. Dorian McDaniel, Michael Griffin and Kornegay chipped in with 11 each while Jones had an all-around performance with 10 points, nine rebounds and seven assists.

Game 3

Prairie View A&M 69
Florida Gulf Coast 54
Thursday., Nov. 20, 2009
Prairie View, Texas

Sophomore guard Michael Griffin scored 12 of his team-high 14 points in the second half as the Prairie View A&M (2-1) men's basketball team broke open a close game to defeat Florida Gulf Coast (0-2) 69-54 at the William Nicks Building.

Neither team shot well in the first half but Prairie View A&M overcame FGCU's match-up zone and managed to pull ahead at the close of the half following a 9-2 run to claim a 21-19 halftime advantage.

Fueled by back-to-back three-point baskets from Griffin, the Panthers opened the second half with a 12-3 run and took control of the game as they led 33-22 with 16:41 remaining. The Panthers led by as much as 15 points on two occasions from that point en route to their first non-conference win over an NCAA Division I team since 2007.

Griffin led Prairie View with 14 points and four assists while Darnell Hugee and Grady Green chipped in 10 points apiece.

Game 4

Oklahoma State 80
Prairie View A&M 58
Tuesday, Nov. 24, 2009
Stillwater, Okla.

Keiton Page scored a career-high 22 points as Oklahoma State took an 80-58 victory over Prairie View A&M on Tuesday night.

Page hit six of 10 from three-point range and also tied a career high with four assists. Junior guard James Anderson extended his string of consecutive games scoring double figures to 18 with 15 points.

Marshall Moses added 10 rebounds as the Cowboys out-rebounded the Panthers, 49-33.

Prairie View A&M (2-2) got 16 points from Darnell Hugee, 12 from Alex Richman and 10 from Dorian McDaniel.

Game 5

Prairie View A&M 101
Champion Baptist 38
Saturday, Nov. 28, 2009
Prairie View, Texas

Five players scored in double figures as the Prairie View A&M Panthers defeated Champion Baptist College 101-38 in non-conference action on Saturday afternoon at the William Nicks Building.

Prairie View (3-2) took control early as they held Champion (4-8) to only one field goal en route to a 12-2 lead with 14:49 remaining in the first half. The Panthers blew the game open from that point as they cruised to a 52-17 halftime advantage.

The second half was all Prairie View as 11 of the 12 players who dressed scored three or more points in the rout.

Prairie View's 101 points marked the second time in two seasons that they eclipsed the 100-point barrier as they scored 106 points against Southwest Assemblies last season. Prior to 2008, the last time Prairie View cracked the century mark occurred on Feb. 8, 2003 in a 104-100 double overtime loss to Texas Southern in Houston.

Freshman Phillip Gates led Prairie View with 16 points while senior forward Darnell Hugee tallied 15 rebounds and 15 points. James Manthe led Champion Baptist with 14 points and three blocks.

Game 6

Texas A&M 89

Prairie View A&M 54

Wednesday, Dec. 2, 2009

College Station, Texas

The Prairie View A&M Panthers started out strong but ran into a buzzsaw as the No. 19 ranked Texas A&M Aggies pulled away for an 89-54 non-conference win on Wednesday evening at Reed Arena.

Led by sophomore Michael Griffin's 10 points, the Panthers stormed out to a 15-6 lead with 16:04 remaining in the first half. However, Griffin and senior forward Darnell Hugee fell into early foul trouble after the run and A&M responded with a 17-6 surge to claim a 23-21 advantage with 3:41 left in the half.

Following the media timeout, A&M's Khris Middleton drained two treys and propelled the Aggies to a 35-25 halftime advantage.

Dorian McDaniel and A&M's Derrick Roland both traded three-point baskets to open the second half but the shots stopped falling for the Panthers as A&M began the second half on an 8-2 run. Prairie View never recovered as A&M broke the contest open en route to the victory.

Game 7

Iowa 80

Prairie View A&M 51

Saturday, Dec. 5, 2009

Iowa City, Ia.

Prairie View A&M dropped its second straight contest as they never got on track offensively in an 80-51 loss to Iowa.

Iowa opened up a 17-4 lead at 11:15 mark which was cut to 17-10 on a Duwan Kornegay three-pointer 10 seconds later. However, behind the strength of five-three pointers and offensive struggles by the Panthers, Iowa stormed out to a 39-15 halftime lead.

Prairie View opened the half on a 7-2 run to narrow its deficit to 41-25 with 17:30 left in the game. Iowa regained its shooting touch and hit another three-pointer to stop the run and picked up where they left off as the Hawkeyes nailed seven treys to pull away for good.

Darnell Hugee led Prairie View with nine points while Michael Webb and Dorian McDaniel both grabbed nine boards.

Game 8

Air Force 75

Prairie View A&M 41

Tuesday, Dec. 8

Air Force Academy, Colo.

Grant Parker scored 14 points as Air Force held Prairie View to a season low and beat the Panthers 75-41 Tuesday night.

Mitch Lyons and Mike Fitzgerald added career-high 12 points each for Air Force (5-2), which has won all three meetings between the two schools. Fitzgerald was 4 of 6 on 3-pointers and the Falcons were 11 of 25 from beyond the arc.

Alex Richman led Prairie View (3-5), which has lost three straight, with 12 points. Leading scorer Darnell Hugee was held to two points on 1-of-3 shooting.

The Panthers were held to a season low 41 points. Their previous low was 51 against Iowa.

Game 9

Prairie View A&M 83

Ecclesia College 53

Friday, Dec. 11

Prairie View, Texas

Senior forward Darnell Hugee dominated the paint as Prairie View pulled away in the second half for an 83-53 win over the Ecclesia College Royals on Friday evening in the William J. Nicks Building. As a result, the Panthers remain undefeated at home and snapped a three-game slide.

Ahead 45-36 in the second half, the Panthers used a 14-3 run to pull ahead 59-39 with 13:11 remaining in the game. The Panthers put the game out of reach with a Michael Griffin alley-ooop to Hugee at the 8:02 mark to lead 68-45. Hugee finished with four dunks on the night as the Royals did not challenge after his crowd-erupting moment.

Prairie View's intensity wasn't as noticeable in the first half, as some sloppy play by the Panthers saw an early 27-12 lead with 8:23 remaining cut to 34-29 with 3:50 left in the half. However, the Panthers used a 9-2 run from that point to up their lead back to double-digits en route to a 45-33 halftime advantage.

For the night, Hugee tallied 34 points and added 10 rebounds to complete the double-double along with four assists and five blocks. Griffin scored 10 points and posted five assists.

Game 10

Prairie View A&M 74

Dallas Christian 69

Sunday, Dec. 20

Prairie View, Texas

Prairie View A&M (5-5) returned to the court for the first time in nine days and found themselves in a battle as they managed to hold off a pesky Dallas Christian squad by a margin of 74-69 on Sunday at the William Nicks Building.

Holding a 39-32 halftime advantage, Prairie View upped its lead to 14 (55-41) at the 13:52 mark of the second half after Dorian McDaniel's three-pointer. However, DCC refused to go away quietly as the Crusaders went on a 16-3 run over the next four minutes to cut their deficit to 58-57 with 9:52 remaining. Prairie View regrouped after DCC's run and upped its lead back to nine (72-61) on junior Duwan Kornegay's free throw at the 5:01 mark. From that point, Prairie View kept the Crusaders at bay en route to earning its fifth win of the season.

Senior Darnell Hugee led a trio of Panthers in double figures as he scored 15 points. Sophomore guard Michael Griffin and freshman Michael Webb chipped in with 14 and 11 points, respectively. Webb also led the Panthers in rebounding as the Dallas native pulled down eight boards.

Game 11
New Mexico State
Prairie View A&M 51
Monday, Dec. 28, 2009
Las Cruces, NM

A 12-1 second half run by New Mexico State allowed them to pull away from Prairie View A&M as the Panthers dropped their non-conference finale 95-76 on Monday evening on the campus of New Mexico State.

During the first nine minutes of the first half, New Mexico State appeared to be on cruise control as they claimed a 26-12 lead at the 11:04 mark. From that point, Prairie View (5-6) began to step its play up as they went on a 21-7 run over the next six minutes to cut its deficit to 35-33 following a trey by Michael Griffin. A three-pointer by Chris Jones drew the Panthers to 41-40 with 1:23 remaining but NMSU held on and claimed a 43-40 halftime advantage.

Darnell Hugee's jumper drew Prairie View back to within one at 43-42 20 seconds into the second half. However, the Aggies began to roll as they opened a 56-46 margin with 16:26 left in the half. A brief 6-0 surge allowed Prairie View to draw within 56-52 one minute later but the Aggies regained control for good following a 12-1 run that spanned five minutes for a 68-53 advantage. Prairie View wouldn't draw no closer than 11 points the remainder of the way as NMSU went on to capture the win.

Griffin led a quartet of Prairie View A&M players in double figures with 19 points. Hugee followed with 14 while Michael Webb and Christopher Jones chipped in 12 and 10 points, respectively. Webb also had a strong night under the basket with a team-high seven rebounds.

Game 12
Prairie View A&M 68
Southern 49
Monday, Jan. 4, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Prairie View A&M (6-6, 1-0 SWAC) began SWAC play on the right foot as they never trailed en route to a 68-49 victory over Southern (2-11, 0-1 SWAC) on Monday night in the William Nicks Building.

The Panthers began the game with a 7-0 run but cooled down shortly thereafter as Southern closed to within 9-6 on Nicks Walls' layup at the 17:03 mark. Over the next seven minutes, the Panthers led by as much as seven points on four occasions before putting together a 7-0 run to lead 27-13 following a Dorian McDaniel layup with 7:43 left in the first half. Southern wouldn't draw any closer than 10 points the remainder of the half as the Panthers claimed a 34-23 halftime advantage.

Prairie View clicked on all cylinders to open the second half as they held the Jaguars scoreless for nearly seven minutes during a 12-0 run to up its advantage to 48-23. The Panthers led by as much as 26 points with 6:46 remaining after a free throw by Darnell Hugee and remained in cruise control from that point as head coach Byron Rimm II had the opportunity to empty his bench.

Hugee led Prairie View with 19 points and two blocks on 9-of-12 shooting while Tim Meadows followed with 13 points and eight boards. Christopher Jones had a solid night with 12 rebounds and seven assists along with two-time SWAC Newcomer of the Week Mike Webb's 11 points and seven rebounds.

Game 13
Prairie View A&M 82
Alcorn State 60
Wednesday, Jan. 6, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

For the second straight game, Prairie View A&M (7-6, 2-0 SWAC) made quick work of its opposition as the Panthers put together a 22-0 run early in the first half en route to an 82-60 victory over Alcorn State (0-15, 0-2 SWAC) on Wednesday evening in the William Nicks Building.

Tied 6-6 at the 16:18 mark of the first half, Prairie View turned up its intensity as they forced Alcorn State to turn the ball over nine times during a 10-minute span. The Panthers took advantage of their effort and went to work on the offensive end as they outscored the Braves 22-0 to claim a 28-6 lead with 5:56 left in the half.

Down 32-17 at the half, Alcorn nailed back-to-back three-pointers to open the second half and trimmed its deficit to 11 points. However, their run was short-lived as Prairie View outscored the Braves 26-11 over the next seven minutes to lead by 26 points at 60-34.

The Panthers were never threatened the rest of the way as they cruised to their second consecutive conference victory and seventh win at home.

Darnell Hugee had a monster game with 23 points and 16 rebounds on 10-of-15 shooting. Dorian McDaniel added 17 points while Michael Griffin and Tim Meadows added 14 and 13 points, respectively. Christopher Jones had a busy night distributing the ball with 10 assists.

Game 14
Prairie View A&M 65
Texas Southern 60
Jan. 9, 2010
Houston, Texas

In typical Prairie View A&M-Texas Southern fashion, it came down to the wire once again as the Panthers put together a 10-2 run towards the closing minutes of the game only to hold on for dear life as they captured an intense 65-60 victory on Saturday night in the H&PE Arena.

Similar to their past two blow-out wins, the Panthers (8-6, 3-0 SWAC) began the game looking like a third blowout was coming as they jumped on top 15-4 with 14:18 remaining in the first half. However, the Panthers went cold from that point and TSU (6-9, 2-1 SWAC) woke up as they cut its deficit to 15-10 at the 10:21 mark following a David Burrell layup.

Back-to-back baskets by Dorian McDaniel and Michael Griffin pushed Prairie View's lead back to eight at 20-12 before the turnover bug hit the Panthers as they committed three straight turnovers which allowed TSU to begin an 8-0 run to tie the game at 20-all with 6:25 left in the half. From that point, Prairie View managed to lead by four points on two occasions as the half came to end but TSU once again tied it up for the fourth time following a basket by Aaron Clayborn. With 23 ticks left, Dorian McDaniel broke the tie with a basket off of a putback to send the Panthers into halftime with a 30-28 margin.

As the second half began, Prairie View resembled a prizefighter as they held off TSU's best punch for more than 13 minutes. During that 13 minute span, the Panthers managed to lead by as much as seven points on one occasion only to see the lead disappear as TSU put together an 8-0 surge to lead 49-48 for the first time in the half with 6:48 remaining.

Sensing the game slipping away, Prairie View went to work as Darnell Hugee hit two free throws to break the tie but TSU regained a 51-50 lead on Onyekautukwu Abikam's bucket which forced Prairie View head coach Byron Rimm II to call a 30 second timeout. Following the timeout, Prairie View turned the intensity up as five points by Jones began a 9-0 surge over the next 3:19 to move the Panthers back on top 59-51 with three minutes left in regulation.

Four free throws by TSU's Junior Treasure and Deandre Hall broke the drought and trimmed Prairie View's margin to 59-55 at the 1:27 mark. However, it wouldn't be called a rivalry without emotions flowing as a technical was issued to Burrell with 53 seconds left which sent Prairie View to the foul line after fouling Griffin. Jones missed the technical shots but was redeemed as Griffin hit nothing but nylon on his two attempts to boost the Panthers' lead to 61-55. From that point, the Panthers put the game away as they went 4-of-8 from the line over the final 39 seconds to capture their third straight win over Texas Southern and only their third win in the H&PE Arena since 1998.

Hugee led a quartet of Prairie View ballplayers with 16 points. Griffin followed with 13 points while McDaniel and Jones both tallied 12 points. McDaniel grabbed a team-high eight boards in addition to a monster effort by Jones with seven steals and six assists in 39 minutes of action.

Game 15
Jackson State 53
Prairie View A&M 52
Jan. 16, 2010
Jackson, Miss.

For the second consecutive year on the campus of Jackson State, it came down to the final possession as Jackson State escaped with a 53-52 win on Saturday night over Prairie View A&M.

Prairie View struggled on the offensive end during the first half as they only shot 28 percent in addition to early foul trouble with three starters having two or more fouls. Despite their early struggles, Prairie View managed to tie the game late in the half but JSU closed out the half with a 5-0 run to lead 30-25.

Down by five at the half, a layup by senior forward Dorian McDaniel brought the Panthers within three at 30-27 at the 18:56 mark. However, JSU upped its lead to seven points 50 seconds later and managed to hold Prairie View at bay as its lead grew to as large as 11 with 7:53 left in the game.

With the game slipping away, Prairie View finally found its groove as they went on a 14-3 run to draw within 51-50 at the 3:08 mark of the second half. JSU's Garrison Johnson scored off an offensive rebound to up the lead to 53-50 but Prairie View remained within striking distance as Darnell Hugee and Chris Jones hit a free throw each on alternating possessions for a 53-52 deficit with less than a minute remaining.

JSU's Rod Melvin turned the ball over with 30 seconds left and PV ran the clock down to 10 seconds before taking a timeout to set up a potential game-winning play. However, Melvin redeemed himself after the timeout with a steal at halfcourt and was sent to the free throw line with three seconds left after a Prairie View foul. Melvin missed the front end of the 1-and-1 and PV had one shot to win the game but time expired before Dorian McDaniel's desperation three-point attempt from halfcourt.

Michael Griffin led Prairie View with 14 points while McDaniel tallied 13 points and eight rebounds. Prairie View struggled on the rebounding end as JSU recorded 20 offensive rebounds en route to a 45-29 rebounding advantage.

Game 16
Prairie View A&M 64
Grambling State 59
Jan. 18, 2010
Grambling, La.

Prairie View A&M overcame an 11-point second half deficit and managed to split its road trip in a 64-59 win over Grambling State on Monday night at The Assembly Center.

Despite a less than stellar first half, Prairie View found itself only down by two entering half-time. However, the Panthers began the second half flat and allowed an inspired Grambling State squad to go on a 13-3 run over an eight-minute span to claim a 48-37 lead with 10:34 remaining. With the game slipping away and their four-game winning streak over Grambling State in jeopardy, Prairie View put its hard hat on and went to work from that point.

Baskets by Darnell Hugee, Tim Meadows, Chris Jones, Duwan Kornegay and Chris Sights keyed an 11-0 run which tied the game at 48-all with 7:19 left. Grambling broke the drought and went back up 50-48 after a Lance Fuertado layup but Kornegay gave Prairie View its first lead since the first half after nailing a trey for a 51-50 advantage at the 6:23 mark.

Both teams traded baskets once again down the stretch and were tied at 55-all with 3:48 left after Hugee scored a basket in the paint. Grambling's George Akpele missed a layup on the following possession and Kornegay took advantage as the 6-5 junior from Los Angeles threw down a dunk off an assist from Sights to give the Panthers a two-point lead at 57-55 with 3:07 left on the clock. Grambling's Donald Qualls moved the Tigers ahead 58-57 following a three-point basket but Hugee answered with another basket down in the paint to put Prairie View back on top by one at 59-58.

With 1:06 left, Ariece Perkins hit 1-of-2 free throws from the charity stripe to tie the game for the fourth time in the second half but once again, Hugee proved to be a thorn in GSU's side as the Brooklyn, N.Y. native dunked it in to break the tie and move the Panthers on top 61-59 with 36 ticks remaining in the game. Fuertado missed a potential game-tying jumper on Grambling's next possession and Sights put the game away as the freshman from Fort Worth, Texas connected on two huge free throws with 15 seconds remaining.

Hugee led Prairie View with 19 points while Kornegay added a career-high 16 points. Christopher Jones dished out five assists and grabbed a team-high seven rebounds.

Game 17
Arkansas-PB 64
Prairie View A&M 52
Jan. 23, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Arkansas-Pine Bluff snapped Prairie View A&M's home unbeaten streak with a 62-54 victory on Saturday night before a near-capacity crowd in the William Nicks Building.

In a trend that would occur all night long, UAPB set the tone offensively as they jumped out to a 7-0 advantage nearly four minutes into the game. A Tim Meadows' free throw represented Prairie View's first point of the night at the 15:23 mark and began a 10-3 surge that ended with Prairie View taking an 11-10 lead four minutes later. UAPB regained the lead shortly thereafter and held it until Meadows converted a three-point play with 7:07 left in the half for an 18-17 advantage. However, UAPB stormed back with an 11-2 run of its own and regained a 28-20 margin on Stephan Collins' trey as the clock read 2:49.

With the momentum turned towards UAPB once again, Prairie View managed to close out the half strong as they went on an 8-0 run over the final 2:49 to tie the game at 28-all entering halftime. The Panthers looked like they were ready to break out of its offensive funk towards the close of the half as Christopher Jones rebounded a Michael Webb block with four seconds left and found junior Duwan Kornegay streaking down the court for a buzzer-beating dunk that brought the crowd to its feet.

Prairie View struggled to begin the second half with only two field goals in the first six minutes. As a result, UAPB took advantage and regained a 39-32 lead with 14:22 left on the clock. Baskets by Webb and Darnell Hugee over the next two minutes closed Prairie View's deficit to three points (39-36) but UAPB pushed the lead up to 12 at the 7:41 mark following a 13-4 run. The Panthers whittled UAPB's lead down to seven at 58-51 with 3:25 left but never could get over the hump as the Golden Lions became the first team this season to win in the Baby Dome.

Hugee posted a double-double of 20 points and 11 rebounds while Tim Meadows added 11 points. Tavaris Washington led UAPB with 13 points in 28 minutes of action.

Game 18
Prairie View A&M 69
Mississippi Valley 63 (OT)
Jan. 25, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Darnell Hugee scored eight of his game-high 25 points and blocked four shots in overtime to lead Prairie View A&M to a 69-63 victory over Mississippi Valley State on Monday before 4,275 fans in the Baby Dome.

Prairie View stormed out to a 10-3 lead slightly less than four minutes in before Mississippi Valley State cut it to three at the 14:23 mark. Five straight points by junior Duwan Kornegay, who scored 11 in the first half, upped the Panthers' margin to 15-8 two minutes later but MVSU once again kept the game from slipping away as Orlando Smith and Joshua Mack recorded baskets to trim its deficit to 15-12.

The Panthers would go on to lead by seven points on two occasions during the remainder of the first half but MVSU closed to within four points (27-23) at halftime.

Prairie View's four-point half-time margin increased to eight at the 15:56 mark of the second half after a layup by sophomore forward Tim Meadows. Mississippi Valley's Jason Holmes drained a trey to cut Prairie View's lead to 35-29 but Kornegay answered with a three-pointer of his own to give his team a 38-29 advantage 18 seconds later. From that point, the game went back-and-forth as every time the Delta Devils scored a basket, the Panthers would fire back.

With 11:49 left in the contest, the Delta Devils drew to within four at 42-38 on Shannon Behling's jumper. However, Prairie View's Darnell Hugee and Michael Griffin took it upon themselves to keep the team on top as the duo sparked a 6-0 run which gave the Panthers a 48-38 lead at the 8:51 mark.

But once again, the pesky Delta Devils refused to back down as they battled back and cut Prairie View's seemingly safe 10-point lead down to four with 3:10 left. Sensing the game and momentum slipping away following an untimely turnover by Kornegay, Hugee came up huge on the defensive end with 3:01 left on the clock as the senior from Brooklyn, N.Y. blocked Behling's shot attempt and took the rebound coast-to-coast for a big basket and a 55-49 lead. MVSU turned it over on its next possession and senior point guard Chris Jones made them pay as he converted a driving layup for a 57-49 lead with 2:38 left.

Up by eight with everyone in the building thinking the game was basically over; the Panthers quickly unraveled as Jones was forced to exit the game after being whistled for his fifth foul. MVSU immediately took advantage as they went on an 8-0 run in the final 2:15 to tie the contest at 57-all on Julius Cheeks' layup. Prairie View quickly in-bounded the ball and appeared to have the numbers for a quick basket but head coach Byron Rimm II opted to take a time out with 16 ticks left in regulation to draw up a potential game-winning play. Following the timeout, the Panthers didn't get a good look at the basket as Griffin's three-point attempt way beyond the NBA line misfired.

In overtime, Hugee took command of the paint and displayed a variety of back-to-the-basket moves with eight points and two big blocks to give Prairie View a 65-60 margin with 2:46 left. Darian Drain's trey closed the Delta Devils to 65-63 with 1:31 remaining but the Panthers managed to hold on as MVSU committed back-to-back turnovers followed by two more Hugee blocks and four clutch free throws by Griffin in the final 27 seconds to seal the win.

Hugee led the Panthers with 25 points, six blocks, six rebounds and four assists in 36 minutes of action on Monday. Kornegay tied his career high with 16 points while Dorian McDaniel added 11.

Game 19
Alabama A&M 59
Prairie View A&M 54
Jan. 30, 2010
Huntsville, Ala.

Despite an inspired defensive effort that saw them hold Alabama A&M without a second half field goal over the final eight minutes, the Prairie View A&M Panthers came up short 59-54 on Saturday evening in T.M. Elmore Gymnasium.

Both teams raced out to torrid start as they traded baskets early in the first half. Down 18-14 with 12:15 remaining in the half, Prairie View went cold offensively and Alabama A&M sizzled as they outscored the Panthers 19-7 over a 10-minute span to claim a 37-20 lead with 2:51 remaining in the half. Down by 17 and the half winding down, the Panthers finally began to show signs of offensive life as Darnell Hugee, Christopher Jones and Michael Griffin helped spark a 7-2 surge to draw within 39-27 at the halftime break.

The back-and-forth pace continued as the second half began with the Panthers recording an 8-0 run to get back into single digits as they trailed 42-35 after two free throws by Duwan Kornegay. A layup by Dorian McDaniel drew the Panthers to within six at 12:45 but after a series of turnovers and fouls, AAMU managed to up its margin back to 12 at 52-40 with 11:01 left.

Prairie View A&M continued to fight its way back as an offensive putback by Kornegay drew the Panthers to within 56-50 at the 5:39 mark. Two free throws by Hugee cut AAMU's margin to 56-52 with 4:56 left but the lid remained on the basket down the stretch as Prairie View missed five consecutive baskets.

With 40 seconds left, senior Tarrence Garrison blocked a huge shot which put the ball in the hands of Jones. Jones pushed the ball up the court and found a streaking Kornegay for a two-handed dunk to cut the margin to 56-54 with 35 seconds left. On the following possession, Kornegay was whistled for a foul and AAMU's Evan Hilton converted two free throws to give AAMU a 58-54 advantage. Jones missed a jumper on the ensuing possession and Hilton once again converted from the free throw line to kill any hope of a Panther comeback.

Hugee led Prairie View with 18 points while McDaniel had a monster game with 11 points and 15 boards. Kornegay also chipped in 11 points.

Game 20
Prairie View A&M 56
Alabama State 55
Feb. 1, 2010
Montgomery, Ala.

Senior forward Darnell Hugee hit a game-winner with eight-tenths of a second remaining in the second half as the Prairie View A&M Panthers overcame a 12-point halftime deficit to defeat the Alabama State Hornets 56-55 in the Acadome on Monday evening before a nationally televised audience on ESPNU.

Once again, the Panthers had a miserable first half as untimely fouls, bad shooting and turnovers plagued them. Hugee never found his offensive groove as he suffered three fouls (one technical) in a span of seven minutes and was forced to sit the final 13:14 of the first half.

Without their offensive leader at the helm, junior Duwan Kornegay did the best he could do to carry the Panthers with eight first half points as they trailed 32-20 at halftime.

With Hugee back in the contest for the start of the second half, the Panthers immediately took advantage of his presence in the paint as the ball touched his hands nearly every possession. Despite having three fouls, the Brooklyn, N.Y. native responded big-time and scored 11 points along with seven from Kornegay in the first 12 minutes to key a 19-6 run that was capped off with two free throws from Michael Griffin with 7:07 left to give Prairie View its first lead (49-48) of the game.

ASU answered with a trey from Tremaine Butler to regain a 51-49 lead but once again, Prairie View kept firing as Griffin nailed a trey from beyond NBA range to regain a 52-51 margin at the 4:54 mark. Fifty-four seconds later, Hugee drained two free throws to extend Prairie View's advantage to 54-51 but ASU's Byron Walker scored a layup to draw within one at 54-53 with 2:52 left.

Both teams went cold over the next 2:30 as they combined to miss five baskets. With 49 ticks remaining, ASU's Menji Mindadi pulled down a rebound off a missed three-point attempt which led to an ASU timeout. With 29 seconds remaining following the timeout, Butler drove deep into the paint and converted a huge layup to give ASU a 55-54 lead. On the ensuing possession, Griffin missed the go-ahead jumper but the Panthers received new life as the ball bounced off an ASU defender's hand with five seconds remaining.

As time ticked down, Hugee received the ball from Griffin and somehow managed to overcome a double team and sink the eventual game-winning shot from the right side to move the Panthers up 56-55.

Monday's win marks the first time since 2007 and only the third time since 2003 that Prairie View has won at Alabama State. Hugee led the Panthers with 19 points and eight rebounds while Kornegay followed with 15. Griffin came off the bench and scored 10 points with two steals.

Game 21
Prairie View A&M 63
Texas Southern 58
Feb. 6, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Prairie View A&M built a nine-point halftime lead and overcame a second-half scoring slump as they managed to hold off archrival Texas Southern 63-58 before a capacity crowd of 5,520 fans at the William Nicks Building.

Holding a 23-22 lead with 7:02 left in the first half, Prairie View created some separation against its SWAC rival as they closed out the first half with a 15-6 run to claim a 37-28 halftime advantage. During the run, senior forward Darnell Hugee went on a tear as the Brooklyn, NY native scored six points in the paint while point guard Christopher Jones nailed four free throws.

In similar fashion to last year's contest against TSU in Houston, the Panthers began the second half full of energy as sophomore Tim Meadows scored the team's first four points to push its lead to 13 at 41-28. Texas Southern managed to draw within eight on two occasions after the early run but the Panthers upped it back to 13 at the 12:32 mark on Duwan Kornegay's layup coupled with a solid effort by sophomore guard Michael Griffin.

It appeared the outcome would favor Prairie View A&M from that point but the tide of the game began to change as TSU went on a 9-1 run to draw within five at the 8:34 mark. With Hugee out of the game due to foul trouble and the lead down to 49-44, Prairie View's offense appeared out of sync as they turned the ball over three times combined with missed baskets and free throws.

The scoreless drought continued until Panther senior Dorian McDaniel nailed a huge jumper with 7:06 left to move Prairie View's lead back to seven. A missed layup by Griffin following a TSU turnover came back to bite Prairie View as TSU's Marc Ellis scored a layup to cut their deficit back to five at 51-46. A free throw by Meadows and a layup by Griffin gave the Panthers an eight-point (54-46) advantage 15 seconds later but TSU refused to go away as Aaron Clayborn converted a basket to keep them within six at the 6:01 point on the clock.

Christopher Jones hit 1-of-2 free throws to give Prairie View a seven-point lead once again with 5:06 left. From that point, both teams went cold for nearly three minutes due to costly turnovers and missed shots. A dunk by TSU's Travle Jones brought the Tigers to within five with 2:24 remaining but Prairie View came up huge without scoring a point over the next minute as they protected the glass with several huge rebounds.

With time ticking down and TSU forced to foul, the Panthers sealed the win with eight straight free throws over the final 55 seconds.

Saturday's win marks the first time prior to 1980 that Prairie View has amassed a four-game winning streak over Texas Southern with sweeps in consecutive years. Griffin came off the bench and had a monster effort with 19 points. Hugee followed with 13 points while Kornegay added 10.

Game 22
Jackson State 51
Prairie View A&M 44
Feb. 13, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Jackson State took advantage of a cold shooting night by Prairie View A&M to claim a 51-44 win at the William Nicks Building on Saturday.

The SWAC-leading Tigers (13-11, 12-1 SWAC) set the tone early as Garrison Johnson scored seven points to help propel Jackson State to a 12-2 advantage four minutes into the game. Three free throws by Prairie View A&M (12-10, 7-4 SWAC) drew them to within seven at 12-5 with 14:40 remaining but JSU once again responded as Tyrone Hanson and Rod Melvin hit baskets to up its margin to 17-5 at the 10:54 mark.

Prairie View jumpstarted its offense with solid defense as the Panthers finally found a way to cool off the hot-shooting Tigers as the half came to an end. Down by 12 with 8:44 left, Prairie View turned to a pair of point guards named Chris as senior Christopher Jones and freshman Chris Sights keyed a 20-2 run with eight points each to move the Panthers on top 26-19 with 15 seconds left. However, JSU's Tyrone Hanson drained a trey with three seconds left to cut Prairie View's lead to 26-22 at the half.

Jackson State scored the first four points of the second half to tie the game at 26-all with 18:36 left. Jones moved the Panthers back on top by two with a layup but Prairie View never could shake JSU off over the next three minutes as both teams were tied twice.

With the game tied at 30-all, Prairie View regained its offensive rhythm with an 8-1 run to move on top 38-31 with 11:02 remaining. Unfortunately, Prairie View failed to capitalize on the run as the tide of the game turned with JSU embarking on a 13-0 run of its own to lead 44-38 with 4:49 left on the clock. A free throw by Jones broke Prairie View's seven-minute scoreless drought but the effects continued to linger on from that point. Even though JSU struggled at the free throw line and on the offensive end, Prairie View failed to take advantage as they only scored two field goals in the final 4:45.

Darnell Hugee was the only Panther to finish in double figures with 13 points. Jones added nine while Tim Meadows finished with eight points and eight rebounds.

Game 23
Prairie View A&M 74
Grambling State 58
Feb. 15, 2010
Prairie View, Texas

Sophomore guard Tim Meadows posted a double-double with 19 points and 15 rebounds as the Prairie View A&M Panthers defeated Grambling State 74-58 at the William Nicks Building on Monday night.

Prairie View jumped out to a 9-0 lead three minutes into the contest before Grambling State came storming back with a 13-3 run over the next three minutes to claim a 13-12 advantage. Grambling State continued to lead from that point until junior forward Brandon Webb tied the game at 20-all with a three-point play. Both teams went scoreless for nearly two minutes until Grambling's Lance Fuertado nailed a basket at the 5:37 mark to bring GSU within one at 23-22. However, Prairie View began to separate from the Tigers as the half came to an end with a 13-4 surge to claim a 36-29 halftime lead.

Behind a career-high night from Webb, Prairie View extended its lead to 43-28 five minutes into the second half as the junior from Terrell, Texas scored four points to key the early run. Prairie View led comfortably for most of the half as they maintained a double digit lead until a trey by Ariece Perkins drew the Tigers to within eight at 57-49 with 6:19 remaining. Grambling's hopes were dashed shortly thereafter though as senior guard Christopher Jones scored four straight points to give the Panthers a double digit lead they never would relinquish.

Meadows had the hot hand for Prairie View A&M as the Fort Worth, Texas native nailed 5-of-6 from beyond the arc to finish with 19 points and a team-high 15 rebounds. Jones and Webb both chipped in 15 points apiece while Chris Sights added eight points.

Game 24
Arkansas-Pine Bluff 57
Prairie View A&M 55 (OT)
Feb. 20, 2010
Pine Bluff, Ark.

Prairie View A&M's shot at earning a big road win fell short as Arkansas-Pine Bluff's Lebaron Weathers nailed a fadeaway jumper as time expired in overtime to give them a 57-55 win on Saturday night in Pine Bluff, Ark.

Tied at 27 entering the second half, both teams resembled a heavyweight prizefight as the contest went back-and-forth with 10 ties throughout the half.

Four minutes into the second half, UAPB claimed a 35-31 lead on Tyree Glass' layup but Prairie View's Chris Jones took it upon himself to keep the Golden Lions from running away with a three-point play on the next possession. Both teams went scoreless for nearly two minutes but once again, Jones nailed a free throw to tie the game at 35-all at the 13:25 mark.

Sophomore Tim Meadows converted a three-point play to give Prairie View its first lead of the half as they claimed a 38-37 margin with 12:35 left. From that point, Prairie View played inspired on both sides of the ball as UAPB kept trying to counter but was met with resistance as the Panthers never trailed for nearly eight minutes.

With 4:30 left, UAPB's George Davis nailed 1-of-2 free throws to give UAPB its first lead since the 12:38 mark. The lead held for more than a minute until the 3:06 mark after two free throws by Meadows which gave the Panthers a 47-46 lead. UAPB's Terrance Calvin turned the ball over on the following possession but Prairie View failed to take advantage as they returned the favor with a turnover of its own with 2:03 left on the clock.

Following the turnover, UAPB missed two golden opportunities to move ahead with missed baskets but the Panthers once again missed a chance to pad its lead as Jones' layup at the basket fell short. As the clock approached 45 seconds, UAPB's George Davis drove to the basket for the go-ahead layup but ended up committing a turnover as Prairie View made a defensive stop after he was whistled for a charge. Forced to foul, UAPB fouled Michael Griffin on Prairie View's next possession and the sophomore from Long Beach, Calif. hit 1-of-2 to give Prairie View a 48-46 lead with 36 seconds left. On UAPB's next possession, Lebaron Weathers missed a layup but received new life after the ball went out of bounds on Prairie View. With 18 seconds left, Tavaris Washington drove to the cup and tied the game at 48-all. Prairie View had two shots as time expired to win the game but fell short which resulted in the team's second overtime match-up this season.

In overtime, Washington broke the tie with a big basket but Griffin answered with two free throws to tie the game once again at 50-all. Tyree Glass hit two free throws to break the tie at the 2:39 mark but Tarrence Garrison answered with a huge jumper near the free throw stripe to knot the game once again at 52-all as the clock read 2:06.

Both teams missed baskets from that point but Weathers nailed a trey with 50 seconds remaining to move UAPB up by three at 55-52. Prairie View refused to go away after Weathers' trey as Griffin eluded several defenders and found a wide-open Jones in the left corner. Jones responded with the game on the line and nailed the trey to tie the game at 55-all with 33 seconds left.

With the shot clock off, UAPB worked the game clock all the way down to 10 seconds before running its offense. Weathers received the ball with seconds remaining and shot an off-balanced jumper that went through the nets with less than a second left. Prairie View had a desperation attempt to win the game but the shot fell short as UAPB swept the season series.

Three players scored in double figures with Jones leading the way with 12 points. Meadows and Dorian McDaniel chipped in 11 apiece while Garrison led the team with seven rebounds.

BYRON RIMM II

Prairie View A&M University

Head Coach

4th Season

Byron Rimm II begins his fourth season as the head men's basketball coach at Prairie View A&M University. Rimm, who has a vast coaching background that spans from the junior college ranks to the NCAA Division I level, assumed the head coaching reigns at Prairie View after spending the 2005-06 campaign as the team's assistant coach.

Armed with the task of rebuilding a program that has had only two winning seasons since moving up to the NCAA Division I ranks in 1980, Rimm has slowly put his touch on the program in his first three seasons at the helm. In his first season after accepting the head job in 2006, Rimm guided the team to a three-game improvement in the win column and narrowly missed the SWAC Tournament as the Panthers fell short in the final week of the regular season. Individually, the SWAC also took notice and selected Brian Ezeh as the league's newcomer of the year. During the 2007-08 campaign, the Panthers began to make strides under Rimm as they made national headlines for their performance against nationally ranked Tennessee. In addition, the Panthers also captured their first NCAA Division I win since 2005 with a win over Norfolk State and defeated Jackson State on the road for the first time in two decades.

After two seasons of rebuilding, everything fell into place for Rimm last season as the Panthers got over the hump and made a big splash as they finished with their best record and finish since 2002-03 with a 17-16 record and third-place finish. Led by SWAC Newcomer of the Year and All-SWAC First-Teamer Darnell Hugee, the Panthers advanced to the second round of the SWAC Basketball Tournament for only the third time since 1998 with an opening round win over Mississippi Valley State.

A native of Pensacola, Fla., Rimm played junior college ball on the West Coast at Ventura College in Ventura, Calif. He was team captain on the school's 1995-96 state championship team before wrapping up his playing career at California State University, Los Angeles. He remained on the West Coast and began his ascension up the coaching ladder by serving as an assistant coach at Pasadena City College and Chaffey Community College from 1997-2000. After several years on the junior college level, Rimm moved to California State University, San Bernardino in 2000 and helped guide the team to a No. 3 ranking in NCAA Division II. He spent only one season at UCB before assuming the reigns as the head women's basketball coach at Texas College in Tyler, Texas.

Heading a program that didn't offer athletic scholarships, Rimm rolled up his sleeves and posted a 20-12 record in his inaugural season – the best record in school history. After one season at Texas College, Rimm returned to the men's side and accepted a position as head coach of Jarvis Christian College in nearby Hawkins, Texas.

While at Jarvis, Rimm made an immediate impact in his first season and guided the Bulldogs to a second place finish in the Red River Athletic Conference and their first NAIA National Tournament appearance in more than three decades. As a result of JCC's success on the court that season, Rimm was selected as co-coach of the year and had two players earn all-conference honors in addition to earning votes for the NAIA national poll.

Rimm capped off his career at JCC by leading them to two appearances in the Red River Athletic Conference Tournament and recorded victories over two nationally ranked programs before moving on to Prairie View A&M as an assistant coach for the 2005-06 campaign.

A 1999 graduate of California State University, Los Angeles, Rimm received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Studies and also obtained a master's degree in education from American InterContinental University in 2005. He also holds memberships in the National Association of Basketball Coaches and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Rimm is single and has one daughter, Jaya Nicole (2). He currently resides in Houston, Texas.
