Please forward a letter of nomination in which you describe and evaluate your candidate’s dedication to PVAMU’s highest humanitarian principles. Your nomination should clearly reflect how your nominee’s life exemplifies a “spirit of love and helpfulness to others.” Give specific examples of how this individual’s actions have directly affected the lives of others. In your letter indicate why this individual should be selected over others who may also be worthy. In addition to your nomination, you may include up to three letters of support. Each letter should be typed, double spaced and no more than two pages.

Please type or print legibly.
