

Prairie View A&M University Student Employment Office

Student Employee Rights

All student employees are entitled to following rights and considerations while employed by Prairie View A&M University:

- To be treated fairly and equitably.
- To understand their supervisors expectations regarding work schedules, job duties, dress code, and any other job requirements.
- To be informed about one's work performance through ongoing verbal communication and formal performance evaluations at the end of each semester.
- To reference their campus jobs for future employment opportunities on or off campus

Student employees who believe that one of these rights has been violated have the right to file a grievance with the SEO. Student may access the Formal Grievance Form online.