PURPOSE AND GOALS

The criminal justice program is designed to produce proficient graduates who can excel in various aspects of the field in leadership, service, research and innovation. Criminal justice majors will have the benefit of an informed and caring faculty to challenge them in their preparation to meet the demands of today's workplace and the nation's most rigorous graduate programs.

HONOR SOCIETIES, CLUB AND SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

Alpha Phi Sigma - National Honor Society in Criminal Justice. The Honor Society was created to recognize scholarship among students of Criminal Justice and provide them with opportunities to attend various conferences sponsored by the national organization. Students are also provided information about opportunities in careers in Criminal Justice as well as education opportunities in graduate and professional schools.

National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice - Student Division. This is a national organization of Criminal Justice Professionals who provide its members with current information about the field of Criminal Justice. The Prairie View Chapter is one of the largest student chapters and provides its members with opportunities to attend various conferences sponsored by the national organization and regional chapters. Students also have access to career counseling and information about career opportunities with various federal, state and local agencies.

The Criminal Justice Club. This organization is open to any student majoring or minoring in Criminal Justice at this institution. The primary purpose of the organization is to provide its members with information about career opportunities and graduate and professional educational opportunities in the field. They also provide a forum for various recruiters to speak to its members and they also take field trip to area criminal justice agencies to observe and speak with professionals.

The Blackstone Pre-Law Society. This group is open to any student at the University who has an interest in pursuing a career in law. The organization provides information about applying and gaining admissions to both law school and graduate school. They sponsor trips to area law schools and the annual Law School Forum where over 100 law school participate. The group also provides information about the LSAT and GRE exams. Finally, Blackstone invites law school recruiters and laws students to visit our campus and provide information about their particular schools.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE PROGRAM

The College of Juvenile Justice and Psychology offers undergraduate courses leading to the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in Psychology. The psychology curriculum is designed to prepare a pathway for students to enter their chosen area of psychology specialization. Students are closely advised to help them make knowledgeable decisions regarding their professional direction. Particular focus is placed on developing the student's research skills, and knowledge of physiological psychology. The rigorous nature of this program will assist students in being nationally competitive in the workplace and for graduate school admission.

HONOR SOCIETIES, CLUB AND SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS

Psi Chi is the National Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 for the purposes of encouraging, stimulating, and maintaining excellence in scholarship, and advancing the science of psychology. Membership is open to graduate and undergraduate men and women who are making the study of psychology one of their major interests, and who meet the minimum qualifications. Psi Chi is a member of the Association of College Honor Societies and is an affiliate of the American Psychological Association (APA) and the American Psychological Society (APS). Psi Chi's sister honor society is Psi Beta, the national honor society in psychology for community and junior colleges.
