

Noushin Ghaffari

Title and Role within Consortium

Noushin Ghaffari is an Assistant Professor with the Department of Computer Science in the Roy G. Perry College of Engineering. During this project, Dr. Ghaffari will assist with student recruitment from the College of Engineering, curriculum development for the topics of Bias in Machine Learning & Artificial Intelligence and Health Equity, curriculum review for the topics of Health Data Science and Multi-stream Data Management, and setting up and managing computer lab for GET-PHIT participants. Please click on Dr. Ghaffari's picture for her curriculum vitae.