

Mister and Miss Graduate Studies

The Graduate Student Association and the Office of Graduate Studies proudly announce the opportunity for PV graduate students to hold royal titles. Are you the next Mister or Miss Graduate Studies? This role offers a unique chance to represent our graduate community and make a lasting impact on campus.

Key Requirements:

- Current graduate student at Prairie View A&M University
- Minimum 3.00 GPA
- Compliance with University Code of Conduct
- Active GSO membership (Join on PawLink)
- Full academic year commitment
- Availability to attend campus events (Homecoming, orientations, GSA, and Office of Graduate Studies programming)
- Host at least one event during tenure

How to Apply:

1. Submit Official Contestant Application
2. Provide professional headshot
3. Include unofficial transcript
4. Share employment schedule (if applicable)
5. Create a 90-second (or less) video explaining why you're the ideal candidate

Role Overview:

As Mister or Miss Graduate Studies, you'll be an ambassador, attending university events, representing graduate students, and organizing activities. This position offers excellent opportunities for community building, leadership development, and networking.

Selection Process:

The committee will review applications and videos and invite top candidates for interviews. The final selection will be based on academic achievement, leadership potential, and commitment to our graduate community.

This is your chance to leave a lasting legacy at Prairie View A&M. If you have any questions, please email the Graduate Student Association at gsa@pvamu.edu.
