

Guide for Evaluation of the Final Pre-Publication/Online Theses/Dissertations/Dissertation Projects

Title:
Student Name:
Format of the Document According to TDDP Manual	Met	Not Met
Title Page conforms TDDP Manual (p. 33).
Signature Page conforms to Manual (p. 34).
Abstract is properly formatted (p. 35).
Abstract is 250-350 words (p. 17).
Keywords/Index Terms are at end of Abstract (p. 35).
All text is double-spaced (except text inside Tables and Figures, some lines on the Title page, some lines on the Signature page, and CV) (p. 32).
Margins: 1.5 left, 1.25 top and 1 inch right margin and bottom margin (p. 32).
Text is left justified (p. 32).
One space after punctuation (p. 32).
Front matter page numbers in lower-case roman numerals at bottom beginning with iii on Abstract; rest of document is Arabic numbered in top right-hand corner (p. 32). Numbers must match font used in document and must be 12 pitch.
Table of Contents is properly formatted including Page above numbers column and sub-headings only are single-spaced (pp. 38-39). Column of numbers must be evenly aligned with leader dots.
Document type is Times New Roman, 12 pt. (p. 32).
Main headings on front matter pages and Chapter headings only are centered and bold (p. 32).
On List of Figures and List of Tables, FIGURE and TABLE in all caps is placed above left column and Page is placed above right column (p. 32). Column of numbers must be evenly aligned with leader dots.
Style statement appears at bottom of the first page of Chapter I (p. 6).
All text is past tense to reflect completion of study.
APA 7th Edition-American Psychological Association
Keywords are one line below last line of Abstract, indented, in italics, with all words in lowercase except proper nouns, and no punctuation at the end (APA, p. 38-39).
No contractions (APA, p. 116).
All racial terms are capitalized (APA, p. 142).
Verb tense is past tense (APA, pp. 117-118).
Use of "who" when referring to people; "that" or "which" for objects (APA, p. 121).
No use of "editorial we" or other plural pronouns (APA, p. 120).
Zero to nine spelled out; numerals for 10 and higher (APA, p. 178).
One space after punctuation (APA, p. 154).
Headings for Tables and Figures at top, flush left, in bold, Arabic numbers (APA, pp. 199-200).

Table/Figure in bold; one space below is title in italics, not bold (APA, p. 199). Note that citations are not included with Figure and Table captions.
Level headings conform to APA (p. 48) Level 1 Centered, all caps, bold, italics (only chapter headings in document) Level 2 flush left, bold; text begins as new paragraph Level 3 flush left, bold, italics; text begins as new paragraph Level 4 indented, with period, bold; text begins on same line Level 5 indented, with period, bold, in italics; text begins on same line All levels except Level 1 are title case (major words are capitalized, minor words, that is, articles, are lower case.
In-text/parenthetical citations are author last name or publisher and year of publication (APA, p. 261).
Narrative citations are the author's last name or the publisher and year of publication in parenthesis (APA, p. 263).
Narrative citations with two authors, spell out 'and.' Only use & with parenthetical/in-text citations (APA, p. 266).
Direct citations less than 40 words are written with quotation marks, and the citation is placed inside of punctuation (APA, p. 271).
Direct citations 40 words and more are blocked/indented, without quotation marks, and the citation is placed outside of punctuation (APA, p. 272)
Citations with more than two sources are placed in alpha order according to the last name of the first author listed (APA, p. 263).
Citations with more than two authors use et al. (APA, p. 266).
All citations appear in References
All references on Reference Page formatted properly (APA, pp. 285-300)
IEEE-Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers
Index Terms are final paragraph on Abstract with first word capitalized. Index Terms are in alphabetical order. Spell out words, then list the acronym in parenthesis (IEEE, p. 9).
Nomenclature formatted flush left; em can be used, and each item ends with a period (IEEE, p. 10).
Section headings formatted properly (IEEE, p. 10).
Figures are always written as Fig. or Figs. They are centered below the Fig. with a period at the end and citations should not be included. Figs. are displayed in chronological order using Arabic numbers (IEEE, p. 13). Note that citations are not included with Fig. captions.
Tables captions are centered above the Table, written in all caps, with TABLE and number on top and title of Table one single space below, using roman numerals in all caps (IEEE, p. 13). Tables are not in all caps on List of Tables. Note that citations are not included with Table captions.
Citations are formatted as numbers and do not include the author's name (IEEE, p. 12).
Footnotes cited properly (IEEE, p. 12).
Consistent font type and size.
References formatted properly (listed by numbers in order of citations, publication titles in title case, no hyperlinks, more than one line single spaced, with each reference separated by double-space). Also, reference titles in italics (IEEE, p. 12).
ACS-American Chemical Society
For in-text citations, use numerical style with superscript or author/year of publication (ACS, p. 2).

Use 'Works Cited' or 'References' in all caps, for reference pages (ACS, p. 2).
For numerical references, use hanging indent (ACS, p. 3).
For author/year of publication, list in references in alphabetical order (ACS, p. 3).
Statistical data formatted properly (ACS, p. 7).
Figure captions are placed below Figures, in 10 pitch, no italics, period after Figure number and period at the end of the caption (ACS, p. 8).
Table captions placed above Tables, in 10 pitch, no italics, period after the number and no period at the end (ACS, pp. 8-9).		