

REINSTATEMENT

Terms and Conditions

FAILURE TO MAINTAIN TERMS OR CONDITIONS OF STATUS

Specific violations include:

- Enrolling in less than a full course of study without prior approval from your (DSO) International Student Adviser.
- Failure to enroll for classes during spring and fall semesters.
- Attending a school other than the one the student was authorized to attend on his/her I-20, without properly following the school transfer procedures.
- Failure to apply for a transfer, program extension or change in program level.
- Unauthorized employment, including working on campus more than 20 hours per week while school is in session.

REINSTATEMENT TO F-1 STUDENT STATUS AFTER A STATUS VIOLATION

A student who has violated his/her status may be reinstated to lawful F-1 status at the discretion of an USCIS District Director, but only under the limited conditions if the student:

- Has not been out of status for more than 5 months at the time of filing the request for reinstatement (or demonstrates that the failure to file within the 5 month period was the result of exceptional circumstances and that the student filed the request for reinstatement as promptly as possible under these exceptional circumstances).
- Does not have a record of repeated or willful violations of regulations.
- Is currently pursuing, or intending to pursue, a full course of study in the immediate future at the school which issued the Form I-20.
- Has not engaged in unauthorized employment.

The student should first discuss his/her situation with the international student advisor (DSO) to decide if reinstatement is recommended. Should reinstatement be recommended the student should follow reinstatement procedures as detailed on the reverse side of this sheet.

ALL REINSTATEMENT DOCUMENTATION SHOULD BE SUBMITTED TO THE INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ADVISOR.
