Desmond London

Reference and Instruction Librarian

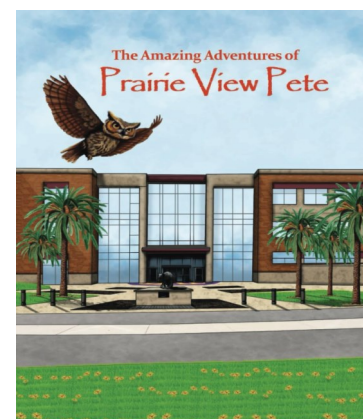

New Author

Desmond London is a Reference and Instruction Librarian I for the Reference and Information Services Department of the John B. Coleman Library at Prairie View A&M University.

Mr. Desmond London serves as the Library Faculty Liaison for the Arts and Architecture School.

He earned a BS in Information Studies and Technology from the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee in 2014, as well as an MLIS from the same institution in 2016.

Mr. London's new book The Amazing Adventures of Prairie View Pete takes you into the mystical world of Prairie View A&M University. Through years of training strong, black young people, Prairie View is a place all children should know about. Give your kids the magic of learning about HBCUs and understanding the heritage of such remarkable institutions.

Mr. London will discuss his inspiration for writing the book and the technical processes involved.
