

Tech Tuesday

Celebrating Libraries

2:00 pm Central Time (Zoom)

April 2, 2024

USING INTERACTIVE APPLICATIONS TO REDUCE LIBRARY ANXIETY

Interactive applications including virtual reality, augmented reality, online chat, games and artificial intelligence, these technologies promote immersive experiences that can contribute to learning. This presentation discusses how these technologies may also reduce library anxiety.

Presenter: Elizabeth Jean Brumfield, Ph.D., CAS, MLIS
Distance Services Librarian, Prairie View A&M University

April 9, 2024

National Library Week Tech Tuesday

Join a special presentation with Rachel Vacek the Associate Dean for Technology and Digital Strategies at the University of Central Florida Libraries, her areas include Digital Initiatives, LibTech, Scholarly Communication, Web Services, and Public Technologies. Vacek also served as President of the Library Information and Technology Association, and Head of the Design and Discovery at the University of Michigan and Head of Web Services at the University of Houston.

Presenter: Rachel Vacek, MLIS
Pronouns: she/her
Associate Dean for Technology and Digital Strategies
University of Central Florida

Scan QR code to log on or Click here

ADA Accessibility Assistance, call 936-261-3585