The Handbook of Black Librarianship, 3rd Ed.

The cover of the book 'Handbook of Black Librarianship, Third Edition' is shown. It has a reddish-brown background with the title in a large, elegant, yellow script font. Below the title, there are two small decorative floral motifs. The text 'THIRD EDITION' is centered in a smaller, white, serif font. At the bottom, the editors' names are listed in a small, yellow, serif font.

Handbook of Black Librarianship

THIRD EDITION

EDITED BY
ANDREW P. JACKSON, MARVA L. DELOACH, AND MICHELE T. FENTON

Join the John B. Coleman Library in a discussion with the editors of the Handbook of Black Librarianship published by Rowman & Littlefield. The Third edition explores issues, advances, and contributions in Black Librarianship over the past twenty-two years.

The co-editors of this edition are Andrew 'Sekou' Jackson, co-editor of the award winning The 21st Century Black Librarian in America: Issues and Challenges; Marva L. DeLoach; and Michele Fenton, who recently co-authored, "Leading While Black: Are We Up for the Challenge?", which appears in The Black Librarian in America: Reflections, Resistance, and Reawakening, Michele is also creator of the blog, Little Known Black Librarian Facts, where she explores the history of African Americans and libraries.
