Biographical Note: William Cullen David was born on July 19, 1896, to Walter and Elizabeth David in Mexia, Texas. He served in the military in World War I, and later as a Cooperative Extension agent in Madison County, Texas from 1934 to 1943, where he was appointed the District Agent of the Southern District. He also served as the state leader of the Cooperative Extension Services from 1946 to 1959. He died on March 20, 1971, in McLennan County, and was buried in Doris-Miller Cemetery in Waco, Texas.

Scope & Contents: The William Cullen David Papers document his work in the Cooperative Extension Service in Texas from 1943-1951. The collection contains meeting minutes, agricultural and crop reports, appointment books, and travel ledgers, but much of the collection is correspondence with agricultural extension agents.

Arrangement: We arranged this collection into two series, with one series arranged further by subseries. Both series and subseries are arranged chronologically by date.

Series 1 Correspondence, 1943-1951
