Biographical Note: The African American Newspaper Collection is a series of 30 publications that was collected and circulating in the Periodicals department during the late 1980s and early 1990s. There are some well-known Texas newspaper publications, but also out-of-state publications primarily in the southern region only. In addition, we have a few international publications from Lagos, Nigeria and Nassau, Bahamas which are centered around Black culture, arts, and delivering news about Black people. The biographical contents of these publications have limited biographical information available online to describe each and every newspaper. The name of each publication is as follows:

Muslim Journal is a weekly newspaper from Chicago, IL. The publication is owned by Muslim Journal Enterprises Inc. Ayesha K. Mustafaa is the editor in chief of the Muslim Journal.

Sources:

None.

Scope and Contents Note

The collection includes Newspapers copies of different publications received by the Prairie View A & M University's John B. Coleman Periodical and Serials Department. The collection has sixteen boxes of newspapers listed in alphabetical order. For each publication, the arrangement of the newspapers is placed in separate boxes by each individual title and the smaller editions are housed in a phase box for long-term preservation. The majority of newspapers are black owned and operated publications expect for the “Mexican American Sun”, which has a target audience of Hispanic culture and heritage.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in alphabetical order by publication title and chronological order by volumes and years of each newspaper.
