Biographical Note: The construction to build an All Faiths Chapel at Prairie View A&M was made by the 11th Annual Minister's Conference in February 1970. The funds had been raised to nearly half a million dollars from 1978-1982 and construction was starting on the south side of the campus to build the chapel. An All Faiths Chapel was recommended by the Prairie View Centennial Council in its final report issued in January 1970. The Rev. Floyd N. Williams, 1969-1970 Conference Chairman has agreed to serve as chairman of a fund drive in connection with the All Faiths Chapel, the Rev. W. Van Johnson has announced. Years later, Rev. Johnson, Dean of Chapel, and University Director of Student Activities was a part of the groundbreaking of the new building that would be the "All Faiths Chapel" in 1982. The religious services used to be held in Memorial Center Ballroom conducted by Chaplain L. C. Phillip before 1970.
