Announces the 60th Session of the Annual Ministers' Conference at
Prairie View A&M University
Prairie View, Texas
February 6 & 7, 2018

Greetings!

Welcome back to an ecumenical movement at Prairie View A&M University. A place that is affectionately called the “Hill.” I am humbled to serve this great Ministers’ Conference for more than twenty-three years.

God has continued to pave the way for new and innovative ways to grow and implement new ministries on the campus of Prairie View A&M University. I am still excited to extend the invitation to you to build a stronger ecumenical body of faith.

It is with great anticipation that we are waiting for your arrival on the campus to experience another outstanding bond of fellowship and theological growth. Our speakers this year are scholastic in their area of preaching, teaching and theological reflection. We are looking forward in making your visit one that will be theologically refreshing, empowering your gift of preaching, and quenching your thirst for deeper insights on spiritual matters and maturity.

Our theme for this 60th Session of the Annual Ministers’ Conference, “Prophetic Preaching...that Empowers, Evangelizes and Equips” speaks volumes of the challenges we face in today’s world with global issues in the Church and Political arenas. As spiritual leaders and preachers of the twenty-first century, we are called to stay focused to preach God’s uncompromising Gospel without the demands to conform to views of a contemporary world. Be encouraged and Preach God’s Word!

It is always my personal honor to express my sincere thanks to those colleagues in ministry who believed in the dream—the dream that ignited us to fuel flames of enthusiasm about what’s to come in campus ministry. Campus ministry is a tool that makes the difference in the lives of students who come to receive an education of the first class. Thank God for those ministers who believed in contributing to a great cause which allows students to fulfill their educational goals.

It is my prayer that God will grant you favor to continue to attend and support this great conference and see what is in store for years to come. I look forward to your attendance and participation.

Faithfully yours,

Charles H. Lewter, IV
Dean of Chapel
