Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Services

Counseling is available for students involved in sexual violence through Student Counseling Services. Taking advantage of a person sexually who is mentally or physically incapable of giving consent (for example, intoxication) is rape. Although rape is usually a crime committed against women, it can also happen to men. If a student is a victim of sexual assault, domestic violence, or stalking, he or she may contact and/or seek the assistance of or file a student complaint with:

- the Title IX Coordinator, Alexia M. Taylor, in Alvin I. Thomas Bldg., Room 017, at (936) 261-2123.
- the Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Denise Simmons, in Evans Hall at (936) 261-3554.

University Police may also be contacted at (936) 261-1375, as well as local police, if a student chooses to do so. Possible sanctions are listed under the Code of Student Conduct. Other support services include the following:

Hope Alliance Crisis Hotline (24hr) (800) 460-7233
