Undergraduate Student Guide
Welcome to the College of Business!

Dear College of Business Student:

In the College of Business (COB), we (faculty and department staff, dean’s office) strive to empower students to achieve their dreams. You have an important role in the success of the College of Business in achieving its mission. All programs in the College of Business are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB International). This distinction is highly-coveted and considered worldwide as the “gold standard” for business schools and colleges. Accreditation by AACSB ensures continuous improvement in what we do, and assures prospective employers that you have received a high quality management education.

Admission to the College of Business is a two-step process. To be considered for formal admission in the college, students must first satisfy certain (minimum) requirements which are stated in the “Application for Admission to the College of Business” form. When you complete this form and commit to satisfying these requirements, you will be designated a "Pre-Business" student. This will allow us to open a file, and assign you an advisor for academic advising and a professional staff member to assist your with career counseling. The pre-business students have full access to the facilities and services offered by the college. These students are able to enroll in all freshmen and sophomore courses offered by the college.

We urge you to work hard to meet the minimal academic requirements for admission. Once you have completed these requirements, as a second step in the process, you will be eligible to apply to your department (through which your major is offered) for a change of classification to “business” from “pre-business.” On recommendation from your department head, you will be formally admitted to the College of Business, joining an exclusive club! Please understand that the COB is strongly committed to educating the whole person. Teaching professional behavior and ethics is fundamental to our mission of producing graduates who are readily employable, and possess skills important for future leadership roles. By signing the “Guidelines and Expectations for Classroom Behavior,” you commit to abiding by these rules.

I am pleased to welcome you to the College of Business. You have my best wishes for success in achieving your dreams through an excellent management education. Please do not hesitate to contact me personally, or a member of Dean’s staff, if there is something we can do to facilitate your educational experience.

Sincerely,

Munir Quddus, Ph.D.
Dean

College of Business Admission Requirements

Full admission to the College of Business is a two-step process. Until the minimum requirements (stated below) are satisfied, the COB welcomes you as a “Pre-Business” student in a major field of study (Accounting, Finance, Management Information Systems, Management and/or Marketing). To be formally admitted to the College of Business, students must satisfy the requirements listed in the University Catalog. If these requirements are not met in a reasonable amount of time, you may be denied full admission to the College of Business.

After satisfying the requirements and being admitted to the College of Business, in order to maintain “a good academic standing” in the program, students must maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.30 or better. Should the CGPA fall below 2.30 at the end of a semester, students may be placed on probation.

PROBATION AND DISMISSAL POLICY

Students in Good Standing
All College of Business students must maintain an admissions requirement grade point average (ARGPA) or cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.30 in order to be in good standing in the academic program. Failure to maintain an ARGPA or CGPA of 2.30 will result in a student being placed on probation or dismissed from the College of Business. Students should be aware that the CGPA minimum requirement is 2.30 to receive a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) from the College of Business.

Probation
All ARGPA s and CGPA s are reviewed at the conclusion of each semester, after final grades have been posted. The ARGPA is comprised of only the nine admission requirement courses, which are ENGL 1123, ENGL 1133, MATH 1113, MATH 1153, MISY 1013, MGMT 1013, ACCT 2113, ECON 2113, and ECON 2123. Any student that has an ARGPA or CGPA below 2.30 will be placed on probation, receive a Notice of Probation, and a registration hold will be placed on the student’s account. The hold will not be removed until the student completes their probationary period obligations.

The schedule for grade review and Notice of Probation mailings is set forth as follows:

<thead>
<tr>

</tbody>

If a student has pre-registered for courses, the College of Business Professional Advisor will determine the appropriateness of such courses and may drop courses that don’t lead to the successful fulfillment of a student’s probationary period obligations. The student must seek advisement with the College of Business Professional Advisor to discuss these obligations.
Students are only allowed one probationary period during their matriculation within the College of Business. If the ARGPA or CGPA falls below a 2.30 at the conclusion of any semester following a probationary period, the student will be dismissed from the College of Business.

Any deviation from the above obligations must be approved by the Professional Advisor, the Department Head, and the Dean of the College of Business.

Probationary Period Obligations

In advisement, students classified as Pre-Business will be informed of the following:

1. They will have two consecutive semesters (not including the summer semester) to improve their ARGPA to a 2.30 or higher. In order to successfully improve their ARGPA, students will be advised to repeat some or all failed admission requirement courses.
2. Pre-Business students will be restricted from taking any 3000- or 4000-level College of Business course during their probationary period.
3. The maximum semester credit hours (SCH) a student may take will be 15 during the probationary period. The minimum SCH of College of Business courses per the degree plan is nine during the probationary period.
4. If the ARGPA of 2.30 or higher is achieved during or at the conclusion of the probationary period, the probation will be lifted and the hold removed from the student’s account.

In advisement, students classified as Business will be informed of the following:

3. If the CGPA of 2.30 or higher is achieved during or at the conclusion of the probationary period, the probation will be lifted and the hold removed from the student’s account.

Dismissal

A student will be dismissed from the College of Business, as indicated by a written Notice of Dismissal, if any of the following apply:

1. Following the conclusion of the probationary period, an ARGPA or CGPA of 2.30 or higher is not achieved.
2. CGPA falls below a 2.0 in any semester.

The Notice of Dismissal will be mailed at the conclusion of each semester according to the following schedule:

<table>

The College of Business will e-mail and mail the Notice of Dismissal to a student’s address on file. It is the student’s responsibility to keep their contact information updated. It is not the College of Business’s responsibility to notify the student by any other means.

A dismissed student will be permanently restricted from taking any College of Business course and will be required to submit a Change of Major form if they seek to enroll in another major at Prairie View A&M University. If dismissed, a student will have the right to appeal to the Dean to have the Dismissal reviewed. A student must complete the Appeal of Dismissal form and submit a signed and dated copy to the Dean within 30 days of receiving a Notice of Dismissal. Appeals received after this period will not be considered for review. The Dean or Department Head will notify students of their appeal status within 45 days after receiving the Appeal of Dismissal form.

Hours are 8:00 am until 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 8:00 am until 2:00 p.m. on Friday.
PVAMU College of Business
Guidelines and Expectations for Classroom Behavior
(Approved by COB Faculty on August 17, 2004)

“As a student in the Prairie View A&M University College of Business, I pledge to always be truthful, ethical and professional in my behavior.” (Student Code of Conduct – May, 2005).

The College of Business is committed to ensuring an optimal learning environment in each classroom. As a student in a College of Business class, your professors expect that you will adhere to the following guidelines for classroom etiquette:

1. Be punctual. Arrive before your classes begin - do not be tardy;
2. Stay for the duration of the class - do not leave the class unless prior permission has been granted;
3. Turn off your cell phone, personal data assistant and other electronic devices that may be distractions to others – no phone calls or text messaging are allowed while the class is in progress;
4. Do not disturb or distract the class - avoid unnecessary discussions unless permitted by the professor;
5. Come to class with a positive attitude for learning – be prepared for the class and stay focused on the class lecture;
6. Do not engage in inappropriate physical gestures or body language; do not use expletives or profanity in the classroom or the hallways;
7. Do not bring in food and/or eat or drink in the classrooms or computer labs. The student lounge is located in room 219. Food and beverages are allowed in this room;
8. Always be ethical in your conduct – do not misrepresent facts, or cheat or help others in cheating during exams, quizzes or homework;
9. Be respectful of the professor and fellow students;
10. Try your best not to miss any class; notify the professor in advance if you must miss a class due to illness, travel, or other unavoidable circumstances; the University catalog requires professor to monitor attendance and penalize poor attendance;
11. Always be civil in your behavior - if there is a difference of opinion with the professor or another student, be polite during the exchange;
12. Always dress in appropriate attire; dress in business attire when making presentations in class, attending a COB program with outside guests, or as required by the faculty;
13. Exhibit good manners – if your behavior is perceived as rude, disrespectful or disruptive, apologize; understand that violations of the above may result in reduced grade or expulsion from the class or the program.
PVAMU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
STUDENT PLEDGE

I recognize that all people and our common habitat have a continuing interest in all business activities. As a business professional, I will strive to organize resources, add value, and provide services in a manner that does not endanger our habitat and respects the values and interests of all persons and groups. In all my activities, I will endeavor to act ethically and with integrity. I acknowledge that my decisions can have significant, and often an unexpected impact on others and that I am accountable for even the unexpected and unintended consequences.

True success is not measured quarterly, but daily, hour by hour, minute by minute.

In support of the above, I pledge, freely and without reservation, that:

• I will act with highest integrity in all things.
• I will endeavor to advance the interests of the stakeholders in my business organizations without sacrificing the interests of the larger society.
• I will guard against narrow ambitions and, when faced with a conflict, place the interests of my organization and the greater society ahead of my own.
• I will uphold the laws and agreements governing me, my profession, my company and the society where my actions may have an impact.
• I will bear full responsibility for my actions and representations.
• I will consistently model the attitudes and behaviors I wish to pass on to my children and successors and those under my supervision.
• I will strive to create sustainable economic, social, and environmental prosperity.
• I will treat all persons, things and places with respect at all times.
• I will strive to act as a responsible global citizen, acknowledging my obligation to play a part in reducing the hunger, poverty, and illiteracy of my fellow human beings.
• I will be a positive, ethical and compassionate actor in my local and global community.

College of Business Student Organizations

Business majors are encouraged to participate in clubs and honor societies. These organizations provide opportunities for students to develop skills needed in business, such as teamwork, planning, organizing, leadership and communication. Several organizations are open to business majors and supported in the College of Business. Membership criteria vary.

The American Marketing Association (AMA), the international society for marketing professionals, is one of the largest professional associations for marketers. Members participate in regional, national and local marketing activities.

Association of Information Technology Professionals (AITP) is an elite network of Information Technology professionals, educators, and students dedicated to continuing education, professional growth, leadership, and the exploration of issues that face the IT industry. Membership provides access to the highest quality IT educational opportunities and forums for networking with experienced professionals and those new to the IT field.

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honor society serving business programs accredited by AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest recognition a business student anywhere in the world can receive in a business program accredited by AACSB International.

Student Advisory Council is composed of the student organization presidents and one selected representative from each of the College of Business clubs/organizations and the College of Business Senator(s). The Council serves as a liaison between the Dean of the College of Business and students.

PV Finance Association promotes the stimulation of the students’ interests in the field of finance, achievement of excellence among students in the department and application of academic knowledge to practical situations and promotion of ethical principles and industry.

National Association of Black Accountants (NABA) is a national organization for accountants and accounting students. NABA encourages and helps students enter the accounting profession, promotes professional development in accounting and provides assistance in developing accounting education for members of minority groups. Membership is open to students majoring in accounting and others who intend to enter the accounting profession.

National Black MBA Association (NBMBAA) Collegiate Chapter is dedicated to developing partnerships that result in the creation of intellectual and of economic wealth. Collegiate chapters attend seminars and events that empower members and encourage the pursuit of higher education in business school programs.

Enactus is a nonprofit organization that gives students the tools to learn the free enterprise system in a real working situation. Students are challenged on more than 800 college campuses nationwide to take what they're learning in the classroom and use their knowledge to better their communities.

The PVAMU chapter of Toastmasters International offers members an opportunity to improve public speaking and communication skills. Membership is open to everyone (student, faculty and staff) in the PVAMU community.

Grade Appeals

Generally, student complaints about grades or other class related performance assessments can be addressed by the instructor of record and the student. When that cannot be achieved, the student may have his/her complaint addressed by the procedure outlined below. Faculty, other classroom professionals, and students’ rights are to be protected and their human dignity respected. Grading and other class related complaints are to be filed initially within thirty days following the alleged precipitating action on which the complaint is based. Except where extenuating circumstances render it unreasonable, the outcome of a complaint that reaches the level of department/division head (except Dean of Architecture and of Nursing) will be reviewed within thirty days and a written notification of outcome will be provided to the student. Where a complaint must be reviewed at each level, the entire process should be completed within ninety days of receipt of the complaint.

In those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor’s assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by following the procedure listed and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint:

1. The student should meet with the instructor of record, preferably during his/her office hours, to present the grievance and any supporting documentation that the grade or outcome of a class related concern should have been different.
2. If the instructor is no longer at the university if the subject of the grievance arises when faculty are not expected to be on duty for a week or more, the student should report to his or her advisor or the absent faculty member’s immediate supervisor (department head, division head, or dean if in School of Architecture or College of Nursing).
3. If the issue is not resolved at the faculty level and the student wishes to pursue the issue beyond the instructor, he/she should meet with his/her academic advisor even if the grade or other issue is not in the department, division, school, or college in which the student’s class is being offered. The advisor will intervene appropriately, but if unable to negotiate an agreement between the student and his/her instructor, will direct the student to follow each level of the appeals procedures items 4 through 10 below.
4. If no agreement can be reached following discussion among the advisor, the student, and the instructor, the student should write a letter to the instructor’s immediate supervisor. In the School of Architecture; or School of Nursing the Dean; in all other colleges the immediate supervisor of faculty, teaching assistants, laboratory assistants and other classroom professionals is the department or division head. The letter or form should present the grievance, the rationale for it, and the remedy sought. The letter or form should be sent at least one week prior to the student’s scheduled appointment to meet with the instructor’s immediate supervisor.
5. If the instructor’s immediate supervisor cannot resolve the issue to the student’s satisfaction and the student wishes to pursue the matter, the instructor’s immediate supervisor will refer the matter to a three to five person faculty appeals panel, one of whom must be a part-time faculty person if part-time faculty members are employed in the department, school or college. The panel will review the grievance and make a recommendation to the instructor’s immediate supervisor.
6. If no agreement is reached and the student decides to appeal the matter further, he/she should send a letter or any published form used for this purpose to the person above the instructor’s immediate supervisor.
7. If the student believes that the decision of the highest official in the College or School, the dean, deserves further review due to flaws in the previous reviews or due to his/her having information of such nature as to potentially impact the outcome, the student should provide a written request for review to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs who will employ a review process appropriate to the situation and notify the dean of the outcome. The dean will notify the student of the outcome. A decision that has reached review by the Admissions and Academic Standards Committee is final.
8. Grading and other class related academic issues are referred in writing to the Office of the President only in instances where a preponderance of the evidence reveals that a student’s Constitutional rights or human dignity may have been violated. The Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs will transmit to the President the entire record of reviews conducted at each level if requested by the President following his/her receipt of the student’s written appeal. The President will employ a review process appropriate to the matter presented and notify the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs and dean of the outcome. The dean will notify the student of the outcome.
9. If the class related complaint is related to issues including but not limited to sexual harassment, violence, drug use, possession of firearms, or other behaviors prohibited by federal law, state law, Texas A&M University System policy or University regulations, the student may select one of the following options: Option A: Report the incident, in writing, to the instructor’s or other classroom professional’s immediate supervisor (department head, division head, or dean). Option B: Report the incident, in writing, to the Director of Human Resources in Room 109 Harrington Science Building or to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs in Room 212 A.I. Thomas Building. If the class related complaint involves another student(s) and is related to issues including, but not limited to sexual harassment, violence, drug use, possession of firearms, or other behaviors prohibited by federal law, state law, Texas A&M University System policy or University regulations, the student should report the incident to the Office of the Vice President for Student and Enrollment Services.
