They provide a responsive audience and advice from experienced writers in sessions generally lasting thirty to forty-five minutes. Sessions of this length offer time to work individually with students on any aspect of the writing process: from brain storming and drafting, to revising and proofreading. They will explore ways to improve a student's overall writing skills. They do NOT proofread or edit for students, but instead teach proofreading and editing techniques. Their goal is to: make a better writer for the long term. Student Academic Success Center Telephone: (936) 261-1040 Student Academic Success Center identifies academic and social roadblocks that interfere with persistence and timely graduation of PVAMU students. Course Goals and Overview:

Art Work by Dr. Talley

This is a semester intensive survey course in Art History. The course is meant to introduce students to contribution of art to civilization. The course will begin with answering the question: What is Art History? It will then proceed from Art Before History to the earliest dawn of man's creative undertakings. The goal of the course is to help the student develop an appreciation for Art and strengthen the student's critical thinking skills through an exploration of art of the past: its context and meaning, and iconography. And most importantly, its connection with the present.

Course Outcomes/Learning Objectives

At the end of this course, the student will

|---------------------------------|---|
| Critical Thinking Skills | Understand and evaluate artwork from these periods in relation to social, political and historical trends |
| Communication Skills | Master art terminology through writing. Identify and classify major works of art |
| Social Responsibility, | Research and discuss an art piece and its reflection of socio-political trends of it time period of creation. |
| Personal Responsibility | Understand and apply appropriate source documentation methodology to given written assignments |

Identify chronologically the development of Art from Prehistoric through (Proto) Renaissance

Course Requirements & Evaluation Methods

This course will utilize the following instruments to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes for the course.

- Exams – written tests designed to measure knowledge of presented course material
- Homework – assignments designed to supplement and reinforce course material
- Projects – individual and group research assignments designed to measure ability to apply presented course material and communicate, visually and verbally, the purpose/message of the end result
- Class Participation – daily attendance and participation in class discussions

Grading Matrix

| Instrument | Value (percentages) | Total Points |
|--|---|--------------|
| Test | 65% | 650 |
| Quizzes | 35% | 350 |
| Projects | 0% | |
| Total: | 100% | 1000 |
| Grade and Attendance Determination: | A = 90–100; 100: 0 absences; 95: 1-3 absences B = 80–89; 85: 4-6 absences C = 70–79; 75: 7-9 absences D = 60–69; 65: 10-12 absences F = 0–59 55: 13+ absences | |

Course Procedures

|---------------------------------------|--|
| University Attendance Policy: | Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Excessive absences will result in lowered grades. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or assignment of a grade of "F." Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class. |
| Instructor's Attendance Policy | Students who are absent for University Business must notify the professor BEFORE they leave. In addition, you must provide a copy of an official University Excuse letter. If for whatever reason, you are unable attend class, it is your responsibility to know what you have missed. Check Connect Art for any assignment updates BEFORE you attend the next class period. |
| Personal Conduct | Students and faculty are expected to conduct themselves in ways that support individual learning and the learning of others. To that end, members of the classroom community will conduct themselves in a professional and ethical manner to achieve these objectives. Any conduct construed to interfere with the learning opportunities of members of the class may result in the removal of the student from the class for that day. Repeated inappropriate conduct will result in permanent removal from the class. You are expected to adhere to the following specific guidelines: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. During regular class periods, all students are expected to dress appropriately in accordance with university regulations so that no disruptions in the learning experience will occur. No sagging/exposing undergarments. No low cut tops/blouses (outfits). 2. No food or drink is allowed in the classroom at any time. 3. Cellular telephones are to be turned off or put on silent ring tone during the class period. Texting is strictly prohibited during the class period. No "ear phone" units will be allowed. 4. Laptops must emit no noise. Make sure your laptop is warmed up and your battery charged before class starts. A laptop is allowed only for taking notes or accessing relevant course material during the class. Checking email, playing a game, messaging and other non-class related activities are not allowed at any time. 5. Harassment of your fellow students of any kind will not be tolerated. |

|--|---|
| Conduct of the Class and Care of the Facility | Please note the following rules for the conduct of the class. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Class will begin at the appointed time. 2. Class is dismissed when so indicated by the instructor. Students are expected to be on time and stay throughout the entire class period. Leaving the classroom before the class is dismissed without prior approval from the instructor will result in an absence for that day. 3. All class members are required to keep the classroom in a clean and orderly manner to facilitate the number of students using it each day. 4. Handouts and Courses Resources will be posted on MindTap or emailed. It is your responsibility to download and print the course resources. Cengage.com/dashboard |
| Submission of Assignments: | All assignments will be posted on Connect Art. All work is to be turned in BEFORE or on the due date during class via Connect Art. Be mindful of all due dates. You will not be reminded when work is due. NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. Do not beg for extra credit particularly at the end of the semester because none will be assigned. It is your responsibility to make sure that you can access the Connect Art Course Page. No exceptions will be made. |
| Formatting Documents: | Microsoft Word is the standard word processing tool used at PVAMU. If you're using other word processors, be sure to use the "save as" tool and save the document in either Rich-Text or plain text format. THE ONLY FILE FORMATS THAT WILL BE ACCEPTED ARE: Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx), Text files (.txt or .rtf), PDFs, and PowerPoint (when required). Any file not submitted in those formats with the correct file name WILL NOT BE GRADED. All file names must include your last name, underscore, first initial, underscore and title of the assignment. For example, for the first assignment: Moore_T_Frida.doc. ANY FILE NOT SAVED IN THE CORRECT MANNER WILL NOT BE GRADED. |
| Exam Policy: | Exams should be taken as scheduled. No makeup examinations will be allowed except under documented emergencies (See Student Handbook). There is no make-up for the final. |
| University Rules and Procedures | |
| Disability Statement (See Student Handbook): | Students with disabilities, including learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in class should register with the Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) early in the semester so that appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal laws, a student requesting special accommodations must provide documentation of their disability to the SSD coordinator. Students should also inform the instructor of their need for accommodations immediately at the outset of the course so that a solution designed to being successful in class can be produced. |
| Academic Misconduct (See Student Handbook): | You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. |
| Forms Of Academic Dishonesty: | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. 2. Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test. 3. Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research. 4. Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else's words, ideas, or data as one's own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one's own work also constitutes plagiarism. |
| Nonacademic Misconduct (See Student Handbook) | The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either: (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class; (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures. |
| Sexual misconduct (See Student Handbook): | Sexual harassment of students and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action. |
| Student Academic Appeals Process | Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have |

| | adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint. |
