TEAM PRESENTATION ASSIGNMENT
[Worth 30% of course grade, or 30 points]
BCOM 3303 / Sections P02 and P03

The team president shall assure minimum requirements are met. The requirements are:

- I. A combined one-page outline will be submitted the day of the presentation. The outline will be in Word format, Times New Roman, size twelve font, one-inch margins, and single spaced lines. Include five references to support your team outline.
- II. There will be one grand introduction and one conclusion for the presentation outline. Each member shall take an equal role in the 15 minutes to 18 minutes (max) presentation. One member could serve as master of ceremony, or narrator for the purpose of transitioning from point to point.
- III. There will be a minimum of two handouts, one handout per nine (9) minutes of presentation. Handouts help to alleviate saturation limits in the audience.
- IV. There may be an overall PowerPoint used to accommodate your team's presentation.
- V. Good library research is expected to support your knowledge claims. Preparation (team practices) is essential. Nothing is clearer than when a team has not practiced as a team.
- VI. The team will dress as a team with professional business attire. Bodily delivery is also your most important visual aid. The body communicates mood of the speaker. Dress professionally! Look the part! Be sincere!
- VII. The team shall take full advantage of division of labor to assure a high quality presentation. Compile a Skills Inventory of all team members' abilities and assign tasks accordingly. Keep minutes for team meetings.
- VIII. The team will be graded as a whole.
- IX. Presentation dates are scheduled for week 15 of the fall 2019 semester.

Special Note: Any team may dismiss any team member by unanimous vote. The rationale and reason for the dismissal must be put in writing and must be submitted to the professor immediately following the team's decision. A failure to document and memorialize a member's expurgation from the team in writing will invalidate the team's decision and that member will receive the same grade as his or her respective team, regardless of actually participating in the presentation. An expelled team member shall be given an equivalent assignment to make up for the team participation points missed. It behooves the wise student to participate fully in the team projects. Remember, Mary Parker Follett is credited with having coined the phrase, "Management is the art of getting things done through others". Team work is designed to ready the student for business that relies on teams and teams to get things done. Students must learn the value of developing such skills. Good luck!

Caution: If you miss your day without an excused absence you miss your presentation! Attendance is absolutely mandatory for the Tuesday and Thursday week of presentations in November 2019. Any unexcused absence (not having a university recognized reason for missing class) will result in a deduction of three (3) class points, from your own presentation assignment, for any student missing class on any of the three presentation days. Presentations will start promptly and the door will be locked.

University Rules and Procedures

Disability Statement (Also See Student Handbook):

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protection for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you believe you have a disability requiring an accommodation, please contact Disability Services, in Evans Hall, Room 317, or call 936-261-3585/3.

Academic Misconduct (See Student Handbook):

You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations.
2. Academic misconduct: tampering with grades or taking part in obtaining or distributing any part of a scheduled test.
3. Fabrication: use of invented information or falsified research.
4. Plagiarism: unacknowledged quotation and/or paraphrase of someone else's words, ideas, or data as one's own in work submitted for credit. Failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting them as one's own work also constitutes plagiarism.

Nonacademic Misconduct (See Student Handbook)

The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct (See Student Handbook):

Sexual harassment of students and employers at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating this policy will be subject to disciplinary action.

Title IX Statement

Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) is committed to supporting students and complying with the Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of sex- or gender-based discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual assault or attempted sexual assault, we encourage you to report it. While you may talk to a faculty member about an incident of misconduct, the faculty member must report the basic facts of your experience to Ms. Alexia Taylor, PVAMU's Title IX Coordinator. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Title IX Coordinator is designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies and can assist you with understanding your options and connect you with on- and off-campus resources. The Title IX Coordinator can be reached by phone at 936-261-2123 or in Suite 013 in the A.I. Thomas Administration Building.

Class Attendance Policy (See Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)

Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports full academic development of each learner whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or internet.

Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of "F". Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University's attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Student Academic Appeals Process

Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the Undergraduate Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint.

Communication Expectations and Standards:

Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement:

Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can take place in a seminar fashion. This will be accomplished by the use of the discussion board. The exact use of discussion will be determined by the instructor.

It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, it/they should be copied and pasted to the discussion board.

Note: This syllabus is subject to change if the majority of students require an adjustment of the speed and delivery of course content. All changes will be put in writing and distributed to the class.
