Detailed Description of Major

Assignments: Assignment Title or Grade Requirement

PERSONAL RESPONSE PAPER

A personal response paper is an academic step to learning to state your opinion and back it up with arguments. The paper is generally meant to provide me with a better understanding of how you personally feel about the "Principles of Microeconomics" as a subject. As such, when you write a personal response paper, you will discuss your personal thoughts and feelings on the topic(s) that have been covered. Your Personal Response Paper will consist of at least five concepts (principles) covered during the semester. Each concept/principle should be (minimum) one page or (maximum) two pages, typewritten, double-spaced, using good grammar and excellent written English. The paper must cover five topics. The paper must contain the following elements:

Taskstream

Taskstream is a tool that Prairie View A&M University uses for assessment purposes. At least one of your assignments is required to be submitted as an "artifact," an item of coursework that serves as evidence that course objectives are met. More information will be provided during the semester, but for general information, you can visit Taskstream via the link in eCourses.

Academic Dishonesty Warning

Students who are caught providing exam answers to another student, or looking at another student's exam, or copying answers from another person on an exam, or discussing an exam with another person (except for me) during the exam period, or receiving aid on the exam from any other person during the exam period, will be given an F grade for the semester and reported to the Management & Marketing Department Head for further actions.

Course Procedures

All exams will be given in class during the regularly scheduled class sessions. The time and date of the final exam will be announced as soon as the University has made that information available. Bring a simple calculator to each exam. The use of programmable calculators and/or the calculator function on cellular phones is not permitted during exams. Please bring your student ID to each exam. You may be asked to show it before you turn in the exam. There will be no make-up exams. Exams will consist of both multiple-choice and essay questions. The multiple-choice questions will be similar to the online practice quizzes available at the following URL address:

http://highered.mcgraw-hill.com/sites/0077416406/student_view0/. It is highly recommended that you review these online practice quizzes on a regular basis.

All known conflicts should therefore be drawn to my attention immediately. Failure to take any exam at the scheduled time may result in a score of zero for that exam. If you have an approved (university accepted) excuse, your final exam score may replace the missed exam score. If you miss an exam and fail to present your excuse the very next time you attend class, your excuse will not be accepted and you will receive a zero. You may not leave the classroom during an exam! If you are tardy for an exam, you will not be seated for that exam if a student has completed the exam and has left the classroom, and you will receive a zero.

Rolls will be taken at the beginning of every class period. In general, excessive absences, excused or unexcused, will affect your grade. Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day you are officially registered in this class. Only unexcused absences will reduce your attendance (bonus) grade. Five (5) points will be deducted from the attendance points for every unexcused absence and three points for coming late or leaving the class before end of period. You must provide a University accepted excuse to have your absence excused. This written excuse must be presented on the very first day you return to class after an absence. Late excuses will not be accepted.

Attention: The classroom door will be closed and locked five minutes from the time class starts. There is five minutes "grace period." If you arrive after the classroom door is locked, you have missed your opportunity to attend the class, and you will lose four attendance points. Do not knock, pound, or kick the door, or in any way attempt to gain attention or entry into the classroom. You will not be admitted if you are late for the class. Regardless of attendance, it is ultimately your responsibility to be aware of all announcements made in class or posted on eCourse and materials discussed in class. You are responsible for getting notes covering missed material; I am NOT a source of notes. Furthermore, leaving class before class is dismissed is not acceptable. If you have a legitimate reason for leaving class early, please bring it to my attention prior to the start of that day's lecture.

If there should be extra-credit assignments during the course of the semester, they must be turned in at the beginning of class on the day they are due. If you are absent, you cannot make up extra-credit assignments. Turning in extra-credit assignments early is always acceptable. Your final class grade is your FINAL grade. I do not curve your final class grade. If your final class grade is 79.4%, you will receive a C for the semester. Do not waste your time or mine by asking me what you can do to make a better grade at the end of the term. I do not assign extra credit to individual students. However, if you suspect that I have made a clerical error in calculating and/or recording your final grade, please feel free to bring this to my attention as soon as possible and I will gladly recalculate your grade.

16	Course Review Comprehensive Final Exam (Please see final exam schedule Spring 2024)

Missed midterm exam: Because excused absences sometimes occur, a student who misses 1 midterm exam will have the missed exam score replaced by the final exam percentage score. A student who misses a second and/or third midterm exam will receive a zero score for the exam(s). There are no exceptions to this rule.

Missed final exam: A student who misses the final exam will receive a zero score, except in extremely rare cases of documented dire personal need, in which case the student may qualify to receive an “incomplete” grade for the semester.

Lowest midterm exam score replaced by final exam percentage score: Because legitimate circumstances can result in a low midterm score for a student, each student who completes all three midterm exam during the semester will have the lowest midterm exam score replaced by the final exam percentage score (if the final exam percentage score is higher than the lowest midterm exam score).

Practice Problems: Periodically I will post a set of practice problems on eCourses. Though these problems do not directly provide course credit, they are very strongly recommended as practice for the exams. Each set of practice problems will have a due date. Students who submit the practice problems by the due date will receive answer keys. (Answer keys will not be provided to students who do not submit the practice problems or who submit them late.)

Practice Exams: I will post exams on eCourses prior to each “real” exam. These practice exams will help students prepare for the real exams (as part of a comprehensive study program that includes the textbook problems and practice problems—do not make the mistake of relying solely on the practice exams to study for the real exams). Answers to practice exams will be solved by students, with instructor help, during class review sessions.

Self-Discipline: It is important to adhere to the course schedule and not fall behind on reading or practice problems. You should devote 6-12 hours per week on this course, attending class, reading the assigned textbook chapters/handouts, doing practice problems, doing unassigned problems from the textbook for your own use, doing practice exams, and taking exams. If you fail to devote 6-12 hours per week on these things then you should not be surprised to receive a D or an F for your semester grade.

University Rules and Procedures

Academic Misconduct (See Student Planner)

You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Planner, especially the section on academic misconduct (see University Administrative Guidelines on Academic Integrity). Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures. As listed in the PVAMU Undergraduate Catalog, Graduate Catalog, and the Student Planner, the following are examples of prohibited conduct. This list is not designed to be all-inclusive or exhaustive. In addition to academic sanctions, any student found to have committed or to have attempted to commit the following academic misconduct may also be subject to disciplinary review and action as outlined in the PVAMU Student Planner.

Forms of Academic Dishonesty:

1. Cheating: Deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not learned, giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations. Examples: unauthorized use of notes for a test; using a "cheat sheet" on a quiz or exam; any alteration made on a graded test or exam which is then resubmitted to the teacher.
2. Plagiarism: Careless or deliberate use of the work or the ideas of another; representation of another's work, words, ideas, or data as your own without permission or appropriate acknowledgment. Examples: copying another's paper or answers, failure to identify information or essays from the Internet and submitting or representing it as your own; submitting an assignment which has been partially or wholly done by another and claiming it as yours; not properly acknowledging a source which has been summarized or paraphrased in your work; failure to acknowledge the use of another's words with quotation marks.
3. Multiple Submission: Submission of work from one course to satisfy a requirement in another course without explicit permission. Example: using a paper prepared and graded for credit in one course to fulfill a requirement and receive credit in a different course.
4. Conspiracy: Agreeing with one or more persons to commit an act of academic/scholastic dishonesty.
5. Fabrication of Information/Forgery: Use or submission of contrived, invented, forged, or altered information in any assignment, laboratory exercise, or test; tampering with or production of a counterfeit document, particularly documents which make up the student's academic record. Examples: making up a source or citing nonexistent publication or article; representing made up data as real for an experiment in a science laboratory class; forging a change of grade or student withdrawal record; falsifying any document related to a student academic exercise.

Nonacademic Misconduct (See Student Planner)

The University respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor's ability to conduct the class, or (2) the ability of students to benefit from the instructional program, or (3) the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Office for Student Conduct under nonacademic procedures.

Sexual Misconduct

Sexual harassment of students and employees at Prairie View A&M University is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Any member of the university community violating the university's sexual harassment policy will be subject to disciplinary action. In accordance with the Texas A&M University System guidelines, your instructor is obligated to report to the Office of Title IX Compliance (titleixteam@pvamu.edu) any instance of sexual misconduct involving a student, which includes sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, domestic violence, and sexual harassment, about which the instructor becomes aware during this course through writing, discussion, or personal disclosure. The faculty and staff of PVAMU actively strive to provide a learning, working, and living environment that promotes respect that is free from sexual misconduct, discrimination, and all forms of violence. If students, faculty, or staff would like assistance, or have questions, they may contact the Title IX Coordinator at 936-261-2144 or titleixteam@pvamu.edu. More information can be found at the Title IX Webpage including confidential resources available on campus.

Pregnancy, Pregnancy-related, and Parenting Accommodations

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibits sex discrimination, which includes discrimination based on pregnancy, marital status, or parental status. Students seeking accommodations related to pregnancy, pregnancy-related condition, or parenting (reasonably immediate postpartum period) are encouraged to contact Student Disability Services or the Dean of Students' Office for additional information and to request accommodations. More information can be found at this webpage.

Non-Discrimination Statement

Prairie View A&M University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity in its programs and activities. The University is committed to supporting students and complying with the Texas A&M University System non-discrimination policy. It seeks to establish an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you experience an incident of discrimination or harassment, we encourage you to report it. If you would like to speak with someone who may be able to afford you privacy or confidentiality, there are individuals who can meet with you. The Director of Equal Opportunity & Diversity has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies, and can be reached at Harrington Science Building, Suite 109 or by phone 936-261-1744 or 1792.

Class Attendance Policy (See Catalog for Full Attendance Policy)

Prairie View A&M University requires regular class attendance. Attending all classes supports full academic development of each learner whether classes are taught with the instructor physically present or via distance learning technologies such as interactive video and/or internet. Excessive absenteeism, whether excused or unexcused, may result in a student's course grade being reduced or in assignment of a grade of "F". Absences are accumulated beginning with the first day of class during regular semesters and summer terms. Each faculty member will include the University's attendance policy in each course syllabus.

Student Academic Appeals Process

Authority and responsibility for assigning grades to students rests with the faculty. However, in those instances where students believe that miscommunication, errors, or unfairness of any kind may have adversely affected the instructor's assessment of their academic performance, the student has a right to appeal by the procedure listed in the University Catalog and by doing so within thirty days of receiving the grade or experiencing any other problematic academic event that prompted the complaint. Students can file Academic Complaints and/or Grade Appeals at this webpage.

Netiquette (online etiquette)

Students are expected to participate in all discussions and virtual classroom chats as directed. Students are to be respectful and courteous to others on discussions boards. Foul or abusive language will not be tolerated. Do not use ALL CAPS for communicating to others AS IT CAN BE INTERPRETED AS YELLING. Avoid slang terms such as “wassup?” and texting abbreviations such as “u” instead of “you.” Limit and possibly avoid the use of emoticons. Be cautious when using humor or sarcasm as tone is sometimes lost in an email or discussion post and the message might be taken seriously or sound offensive.

Video Conferencing Etiquette

When using Zoom, WebEx or other video conferencing tools, confirm the visible area is tidy, clear of background clutter, inappropriate or offensive posters, and other distractions. Ensure you dress appropriately and avoid using high traffic or noisy areas. Stay muted when you are not speaking and avoid eating/drinking during session. Before class session begins, test audio, video and lighting to alleviate technology issues.

Technical Support

Students should go to the Password Reset Tool if they have password issues. The page will provide instructions for resetting passwords and contact information if login issues persist. For other technical questions regarding eCourses, call the Center for Instructional Innovation and Technology Services (CIITS) at 936-261-3283 or email ciits@pvamu.edu.

Communication Expectations and Standards

Emails or discussion postings will receive a response from the instructor, usually in less than 48 hours. Urgent emails should be marked as such. Check regularly for responses.

Discussion Requirement

Online courses often require minimal to no face-to-face meetings. However, conversations about the readings, lectures, materials, and other aspects of the course can take place in a seminar fashion. This will be accomplished by the use of the discussion board. The exact use of discussion will be determined by the instructor.

It is strongly suggested that students type their discussion postings in a word processing application such as Word and save it to their PC or a removable drive before posting to the discussion board. This is important for two reasons: 1) If for some reason your discussion responses are lost in your online course, you will have another copy; 2) Grammatical errors can be greatly minimized by the use of the spell-and-grammar check functions in word processing applications. Once the post(s) have been typed and corrected in the word processing application, copy and paste to the discussion board.

COVID-19 Campus Safety Measures

To promote public safety and protect students, faculty, and staff during the COVID-19 pandemic, Prairie

View A&M University has adopted policies and practices for the Spring 2024 academic term to limit virus transmission. Students must observe the following practices while participating in face-to-face courses and course-related activities (office hours, help sessions, transitioning to and between classes, study spaces, academic services, etc.):

- Self-monitoring - Students should follow CDC recommendations for self-monitoring. Students who have a fever or exhibit symptoms of COVID-19 should participate in class remotely and should not participate in face-to-face instruction.
- Face Coverings - Face coverings (cloth face covering, surgical mask, etc.) must be properly worn in all non-private spaces including classrooms, teaching laboratories, common spaces such as lobbies and hallways, public study spaces, libraries, academic resource and support offices, and outdoor spaces where 6 feet of physical distancing is difficult to reliably maintain.
- Physical Distancing - Physical distancing must be maintained between students, instructors, and others in course and course-related activities.
- Classroom Ingress/Egress - Students must follow marked pathways for entering and exiting classrooms and other teaching spaces. Students should leave classrooms promptly after course activities have concluded, should not congregate in hallways and should maintain 6-foot physical distancing when waiting to enter classrooms and other instructional spaces.
- Face-to-face Class - To attend a face-to-face class, students must wear a face covering (or a face shield if they have an exemption letter). If a student refuses to wear a face covering, the instructor should ask the student to leave and join the class remotely. If the student does not leave the class, the faculty member should report that student to the Office for Student Conduct for adjudication. Additionally, the faculty member may choose to teach that day's class remotely for all students.
- COVID-19 Guidelines for Student Conduct Adjudication - The mandatory COVID-19 Training/Certification taken by all students serves as the 1st Warning for violation of COVID-19 Guidelines.
 - 1st incident: upon review of Incident Report and finding of responsibility — Conduct Probation
 - 2nd incident: upon review of Incident Report and finding of responsibility — Suspension
 - Consult the Code of Student Conduct in the Student Planner or Student Conduct website for additional information on Conduct Probation and Suspension.
- Personal Illness and Quarantine - Students required to quarantine must participate in courses and course-related activities remotely and must not attend face-to-face course activities. Students should notify their instructors of the quarantine requirement. Students under quarantine are expected to participate in courses and complete graded work unless they have symptoms that are too severe to participate in course activities. Students experiencing personal injury or illness that is too severe for the student to attend class qualify for an excused absence. To receive an excused absence, students must provide appropriate documentation to the Office for Student Conduct, studentconduct@pvamu.edu.
