

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC & ALLIED HEALTH

SUMMER BRIDGE 2025

FIVE-WEEK ACADEMIC INITIATIVE

Application Deadline
May 1st, 2025

Program Duration: July 14th—August 11th

The School of Public & Allied Health Summer Bridge Program is a five-week Summer Session academic program free of charge and designed for incoming freshmen in the School of Public & Allied Health

- Earn six credit hours (two courses) of college level coursework
- Experience residence life on campus
- Participate in educational partnerships (field experiences)
- Enhance teamwork skills through interaction with students from various colleges on campus
- Free room, board, tuition and fees
- Gain professional development skills through workshop and activities
- Participate in extracurricular activities on campus

Scan Here to Apply

Free College Courses to be Earned:

- HLTH 1304 (Personal Health and Wellness)
- ENGL 1301 (Freshman Composition I)

Requirements:

- Must attend PVAMU as an entering Freshman for Fall 2025
- Current Meningitis Shot Record
- Texas State Initiative Assessment TSIA Scores (Must take the exam or provide scores prior to acceptance). Students must be Texas residents (or a Non-Resident on a Presidential or Regents Scholarship) who has been accepted as a PVAMU student (first-time freshman only)

LIMITED SPOTS AVAILABLE!