On Friday, 10/18/2024, University Officer responded to the grassy field west of University Village North dorms to assist on a medical call. Upon arrival University Officer met with Med 10 and Suspect/Arrestee. The Suspect/Arrestee was cooperating and speaking with Med 10 and University Officer. Waller County EMS arrived at location and started to take custody of Suspect/Arrestee. The Suspect/Arrestee became belligerent with University Officer. EMS personnel started to walk Suspect/Arrestee to the ambulance. The Suspect/Arrestee turned around and walked back to University Officer's location. Again, the Suspect/Arrestee was being aggressive in his actions towards University Officer. EMS personnel were able to persuade Suspect/Arrestee to walk back to the ambulance. University Officers helped escort Suspect/Arrestee. Once University Officers and Suspect/Arrestee were by the ambulance the Suspect/Arrestee became belligerent and hostile and started walking towards University Officer. Suspect was quickly decentralized to the ground. Suspect/Arrestee was handcuffed behind the back after he stopped resisting. Suspect/Arrestee was place into the backseat of another University Officer's patrol vehicle. Suspect/Arrestee was then transported to Waller County Jail to be processed in.
