A CELEBRATION OF BLACK HISTORY: PAST AND PRESENT

During the month of February, the School of Architecture along with other offices and departments of Prairie View A&M University will sponsor a month-long celebration of Black History, which will kick-off on February 1st.

Wednesday, January 31st

Black History Month Kick-off with PVAMU President, Dr. George C. Wright

Thursday, February 1st

Annual Black History Month Luncheon sponsored by University President and Johnson-Phillip All Ministers Conference

Friday, February 2nd

African Artifacts Showcase

Saturday, February 3rd

The Powerful Black Nation: An Opulent Gala - 8:00 p.m., MSC Auditorium

Monday, February 5th

Sponsored by the Office of Special Programs/Cultural Series 10:00 a.m., MSC Auditorium

We Salute PVAMU'S own student performers. A night of flavor with international dishes and how to play the zydeco, steel drum, and African drum. Teams will consist of 2 to 4 persons, members from in and out of PVAMU and with great karaoke and pizza. Come out and embrace our cultures together to present fashion, poetry, drama, and music. Must see!

Tuesday, February 6th

African History Lecture: The Strange Demise of Black Nationhood - 9:00 a.m., Billy J. Nicks Student Union

Wednesday, February 7th

Lecture with Dr. Terry Birdwhistle - 4:30 p.m., MSC Auditorium

This lecture is the reading of a novel by the famous African-American author. It is a novel that tells the story of the African-American experience in the context of the Civil War. It is a story of love and determination, of sacrifice and resilience.

Thursday, February 8th

Black History Month Guest Author and Lecture - 3:00 p.m., MSC Auditorium

This lecture is the reading of a novel by the famous African-American author. It is a novel that tells the story of the African-American experience in the context of the Civil War. It is a story of love and determination, of sacrifice and resilience.

Friday, February 9th

Black History Documentary: The Strange Demise of Black Nationhood - 8:00 p.m., MSC Auditorium

This film reveals how southern cities practiced desegregation in a quieter time. The Program focuses on Blacks in the history of the Equal Opportunity Office.

Saturday, February 10th

Celebration of Stars - Reflections of the Black Soul - 8:00 p.m., MSC Auditorium

Monday, February 12th

 Talent Show: Celebration of Stars - Reflections of the Black Soul - 8:00 p.m., MSC Auditorium

Tuesday, February 13th

Documentary: Ida B. Wells - A Passion for Justice - 10:00 a.m., MSC Auditorium

Wednesday, February 14th

Club Pees and Vees Valentine Salute to Motown - 3:00 p.m., MSC Ballroom

Friday, February 16th

Karaoke Night - Come out and embrace our cultures with great karaoke and images. Sponsors: PVAMU's African Students Association, PVAMU's NAACP, CHISPAS and Special Programs/Cultural Series

Saturday, February 17th

Musical: Harlem after Hours - The evening will feature music related to Black History. The evening will feature music related to Black History.

Sunday, February 18th

PVAMU Student Entrepreneurs Expo - The program focuses on Blacks in Business and showcases students who own and run businesses at PVAMU. Come out and get great bargains while supporting our student businesses. Students will showcase their products and services.

Monday, February 19th

Reconciliation - a Workshop: “The Arts of Being in Conflict” - Lecture: Dr. Juliet E. K. Walker - 9:00 a.m., MSC Auditorium

Wednesday, February 21st

Cultural Workshop - A World of Culture - 8:00 p.m., MSC Ballroom

Thursday, February 22nd

A Taste of Soul - Food Night - Come out and try the best Soul Food Dinner. Live music from a local ensemble. Come out and embrace our cultures with great karaoke and images.

Friday, February 23rd

International Food Feast - 8:00 p.m., MSC Ballroom

Saturday, February 24th

Panther Day on the Hill - University Open House - High school students, parents, counselors and alumni will enjoy the PVAMU Extravaganza. Sign up begins January 26, 2007 in the Office of Special Programs/Cultural Series and the Department of Student Activities and Leadership. Call 903-323-3110 to sign up.

Sunday, February 25th

PVAMU Open House - High school students, parents, counselors and alumni will enjoy the PVAMU Extravaganza. Sign up begins January 26, 2007 in the Office of Special Programs/Cultural Series and the Department of Student Activities and Leadership. Call 903-323-3110 to sign up.

Monday, February 26th

Spring 2007 Career Fair - PVAMU Career Fair - 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m., Memorial Student Center

Tuesday, February 27th

PVAMU Welcome and Encourage Day - 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., MSC Ballroom

The Office of Special Programs/Cultural Series and the Department of Student Activities and Leadership invite you to participate in the Spring 2007 Career Fair at PVAMU. The fair will be held on February 27, 2007 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the MSC Ballroom. The fair will feature booths from various businesses, government and non-profit agencies, school systems and other organizations. Participants who are interested in participating in the fair should contact the Career Fair Coordinator, Carrie James, at 903-323-3110 or email: cjames@pvamu.edu. The fair will be open to the public.