Course Requirements & Evaluation Methods:
This course will utilize the following five methods to determine student grades and proficiency of the learning outcomes:

1. Attendance and Participation. Students are expected to participate in all classes. Reading the required chapters before the class is considered a part of participation and will be assessed randomly throughout the class. Attendance will be assessed in accordance with the University Student Handbook. If you miss class, you are responsible for obtaining materials covered from fellow students. If there are any challenges with attendance, please notify the instructor in writing from an authorized individual (e.g., for an athlete, a letter should come from the coach) preferably before the absence. This is 10% of the final grade.

2. Examination will account for 50% of the final grade. This component consists of three elements: Test 1 and a Mid-Term exam which accounts for 25% and a Final Examination which is worth 25% of your grade. All quiz and exams will be individual assessments. The structure and format of the quiz and examination will consist of multiple choice, true and false and essay questions. The topics to be covered for each quiz and examination are listed on the schedule.

3. Assignment. There will be at least two types of assignments, In class and take home assignments which will account for 10% of the final grade. The In-Class assignments will be announced and the take home assignments will consist of at minimum, two reaction papers. The Reaction Assignment is an individual assignment, designed to evaluate student’s critical thinking skills. The assignments should be submitted on or before the due date posted on the schedule. Articles for the reaction assignments will be submitted via e-Course and students will be reminded in advance. In accordance with APA style, these reaction assignments will be summary answers to questions related to the content of the course textbook. Included also should be your assessment and thoughts on the readings.

4. Group Presentation. This assignment accounts for 20% of the final grade. These presentations are designed to enhance one’s knowledge of criminal justice occupations, and refine communication skills. Groups will be assigned randomly. Each group is required to:

a. Prepare a 30-minute summary presentation that explores a criminal justice profession in light of the chapter assigned.

b. Submit a hard copy of the final presentation on the day of the presentation and also submit a copy on E-course.

c. Dress Professionally, that is, conservative clothing and appearance appropriate for an interview for a criminal justice job) is required when conducting the presentation. Women: Solid color, conservative suit skirt (just above the knee not too short) or pants, co-ordinated blouse (no cleavage), moderate shoes (preferably closed toe pumps), limited jewelry (no dangling earrings), neat/professional hairstyle (no un-natural colors like blue and pink tint), tan or light hosiery (that match skin tone). Men: Solid color, conservative suit (preferably dark no-zoot suits), white or matching solid color long sleeve shirt, conservative tie, dark socks, professional shoes, very limited jewelry no earrings, neat, professional hairstyle.

In accordance with federal laws, a student requesting special accommodations must provide documentation of their disability to the SSD coordinator.

Academic misconduct (See Student Handbook):
You are expected to practice academic honesty in every aspect of this course and all other courses. Make sure you are familiar with your Student Handbook, especially the section on academic misconduct. Students who engage in academic misconduct are subject to university disciplinary procedures.

Forms of academic dishonesty:
1. Cheating: deception in which a student misrepresents that he/she has mastered information on an academic exercise that he/she has not mastered; giving or receiving aid unauthorized by the instructor on assignments or examinations.

Nonacademic misconduct (See Student Handbook)
The university respects the rights of instructors to teach and students to learn. Maintenance of these rights requires campus conditions that do not impede their exercise. Campus behavior that interferes with either (1) the instructor’s ability to conduct the class, (2) the inability of other students to profit from the instructional program, or (3) campus behavior that interferes with the rights of others will not be tolerated. An individual engaging in such disruptive behavior may be subject to disciplinary action. Such incidents will be adjudicated by the Dean of Students under nonacademic procedures.
