About the Gavel Series

The Gavel Series provides free, user-friendly community-based legal education classes to PVAMU students and to Waller Co. residents. TJCPC Associate Director Grady M. Paris, Esq. and Judge Jackson began the series in 2012 as a way to provide legal-related learning experiences for the diverse population within Waller County. The Gavel Series is held quarterly. Prior topics have covered immigration law, consumer protection, landlord-tenant law, elder law, and other legal-related topics.
