To be completed by Teachers and Researchers from the People's Republic of China (Article 19)

1. I was a resident of the People's Republic of China on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.
2. I am visiting the United States for the purpose of teaching, giving lectures, or conducting research at Texas A&M University, which is an accredited educational institution or scientific research institution. I will receive compensation for my teaching, lecturing or research activities.
3. The teaching, lecturing, or research compensation received during the entire taxable year (or during the period from _____ to _____) qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal tax under the tax treaty between the United States and the People's Republic of China. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under that treaty for income received as a teacher, lecturer, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States. If an exemption has been taken as a student during the immediately preceding period, the benefits offered under this article are not allowed.
4. Any research I perform will be undertaken in the public interest and not primarily for the private benefit of a specific person or persons.
5. I arrived in the United States on _____ (insert the date of your last arrival in the United States before beginning the teaching, lecturing, or research activities). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation received during a maximum aggregate period of three years. No exemption may be claimed for compensation received for teaching, lecturing, or research performed before January 1, 1987.

NOTE: Once your exemption from withholding for income tax expires, or you have earned the maximum amount per year which can be exempt from withholding, taxes will automatically be withheld as for a single person claiming one allowance plus additional tax withholding of $15.30 per pay period if you are paid biweekly or $33.10 per pay period if you are paid monthly.
