MEMORANDUM

TO: PVAMU Campus Community

FROM: Timothy E. Sams, Vice President, Student Affairs

RE: University Responses to the Coronavirus

---

We understand the global media coverage of the coronavirus may cause you to be concerned about the health and safety of our Prairie View A&M University students. However, we have determined that presently our students have a low risk of being affected by the coronavirus as there are no confirmed cases in the Houston area according to the February 3, 2020 Houston Health Department update and we have no students who have traveled to China recently. Nevertheless, we ask everyone to be vigilant about handwashing and monitoring your personal health.
