Whitlowe R. Green College of Education

Promotion and Tenure

April 1, 2008

Promotion and Tenure

- Overview
- Texas A&M Policy
- Prairie View A&M Policy
- Whitlowe R. Green COE Guidelines

Teaching

- A faculty member is expected to provide evidence of good and effective instruction during the period of evaluation related to tenure and/or promotion to the next rank.
  - SOS Reports
  - Candidates success on TExES
  - Evaluation instruments
  - Technology and innovation instruction, staying current, etc.

Research

- PROMOTION TO THE RANK OF ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
  - Three publications in refereed journals
  - Two presentations at national or regional conferences (Collaborative projects and activities with P-12 schools may be considered in lieu of scholarly presentations)
- PROMOTION TO THE RANK OF PROFESSOR
  - Four publications in refereed journals

Service

- A faculty member is expected to provide evidence of satisfactory contributions in the areas of services
  - Department
  - College
  - University
  - Community

Current Rubric

- The current Rubric Measures
  - Teaching
  - Research
  - Advising
  - Service

- Questions?